FETE WORKERS AT KEYSTONE CABINET CO.

Veteran employees were honored by the Keystone Cabinet Co., Littlestown, at its 13th annual banquet Tuesday evening in St. Aloysius Hall, Littlestown. About 200 employees and their guests attended. A roast turkey dinner was served.

Gifts were presented to the employees of the 35, 30, 25 and 20-year "clubs." Members of the "Old Timer's Club," retired former members of the various year clubs, also received gifts.

Miss Anna I. Cairns, sales manager, presented chests of silver to Edward Hawk, Lloyd Shuey and Claude Snyder who served the company continuously for 35 years. She also presented other gifts to these employees:

The 30-year club: Walter BeMiller, Lester Myers, Melvin Spangler, Clarence Stair and Earl Wenschhoff; 25-year club, John Deardorff and Kathryn Hahn; 20-year club, James Shomper, Vernon Study and Mervin Legore.

Extend Greetings

Dr. H. A. Stonesifer, president, and James S. Cairns, vice president and treasurer, extended greetings. The invocation was by Lewis Bair. Dinner music was played by Jeanne Critchley, accordionist.

Entertainment was comedy magic by "Doc" Mifflin.

Frank Skidmore presented gifts on behalf of the employees to Miss and Mr. Cairns. They and Melvin E. Spangler and Richard Herring made presentations of other gifts to employees and guests.

The diners also joined in group singing of several Christmas carols.

Weikert, Mrs. Melvin Spangler, Melvin Spangler, Miss Anna I. Cairns, James S. Cairns, Mrs. James P. Cairns, Dr. H. A. Stonesifer, Samuel Renner and Mrs. Samuel Renner. (Times photo)

GUARDIAN IS APPOINTED FOR UNBORN HEIRS

Attorney J. Francis Yake Jr. was appointed by the Adams County court Monday as guardian of "unascertained interests" of children yet "unborn."

The selection of Yake by the court came at the request of Mrs. Martha J. Beidler, Biglerville, as executor of the will of her late husband, J. Willis Beidler.

Mrs. Beidler, as executor, is scheduled to file soon her account in the $150,933.27 estate of her late husband.

Under Mr. Beidler's will one-half of that amount goes to Mrs. Beidler as widow, the other $74,191.64 to be distributed to Mrs. Beidler and the First National Bank of Gettysburg as trustees with the interest of the fund to go to Mrs. Beidler during her life and after her death the principal is to go to Mr. and Mrs. Beidler's children: Philip D., Deborah and J. Gary Beidler.

The need to appoint a guardian for the interests of "children as yet unborn" comes from the provision of Mr. Beidler's will providing that the trust fund which states that at the distribution of the fund "the issue of any deceased child is to take the share the parent would if living."

In order that the rights of those potential heirs may be protected, Mrs. Beidler asked court appointment of the guardian.

APPEAL FOR CLOTHES

The Biglerville unit of the Salvation Army today made an appeal for "all types of blankets, comforters, and bed clothing." Miss Jean Thomas, head of the Biglerville unit, said the "need is pressing. We have many requests for such articles and none available at the moment." Persons who wish to donate may call Miss Thomas or Thomas Brothers Store, Biglerville.

PLAN CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The annual Christmas program featuring carols and recitations by the children will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church, Hunterstown.

$500 Damage When Two Cars Collide

Damage totaled $500 but no one was injured when two cars collided Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock four miles north of here on the Mummasburg Rd.

State police said the Rev. Amos W. Myer, 74, Gettysburg R. 2, drove from a parked position across the highway and his vehicle was struck by an auto driven by Charles Smith, 53, Gettysburg R. 3. Damage was estimated at $200 to the Myer car and $300 to the Smith vehicle.

PREPARE FOR COUNTY SALE ON THURSDAY

The Adams County Commissioners this morning checked final preparations for the public sale of the county home's livestock and farm equipment Thursday and were satisfied that all was in readiness for the sale which will mark the end of "farming business" for the county after more than a century of operation of the "county farm."

The sale of the livestock, equipment, and even the barn and other outbuildings if buyers can be found, is scheduled to start at noon Thursday.

Present plans of the county are eventually to sell off the farm land and use the money to help build a new county home. It is anticipated that start of the new construction — and the sale of the land — will probably come in 1959.

Change Assessment Deadline

Other business before the commissioners at their meeting in the court house today included a decision to set March 15 as the deadline date for adding new properties to the assessment rolls. The change, from May 15, was made in accordance with an act of the state legislature calling upon all county units, school boards and township supervisors to set March 15 as the date for the assessment deadline in order to establish a standard date across the state.

SHILLITO IS LIONS SPEAKER AT FAIRFIELD

Clair Shillito, Biglerville, governor of District 14-C of Lions International, was the speaker Tuesday evening at the annual ladies' night Christmas dinner of the Fairfield Lions Club.

The program with 60 present was held at the Zion Lutheran Parish House in Fairfield. The turkey dinner served by the Ladies of Zion.

District Governor Shillito praised the Fairfield Lions in his talk on "Where Are We Going?" Lions is a "club of service, founded on the golden rule," he said. He complimented the club for establishing a monthly bulletin, entitled "The Lion's Roar," edited by Robert Reinhold. The new bulletin, Shillito said, "compares with the best such publications of Lions clubs and a study of the activities listed in that bulletin shows that the Fairfield Lions Club is headed for the top."

Key Award For Schultz

Shillito presented William Schultz, president of the Fairfield Lions, with a card and key as a "Key Man" of Lions International, and with a certificate of achievement for obtaining his quota of new members.

President Schultz presided and his 11-year-old daughter, Virginia, presented a piano solo for her first public appearance as a pianist.

The ladies attending the program were presented with milk glass candy dishes which for the dinner were filled with greens and Christmas tree balls.

The program closed with games. The committee for the dinner included Kenneth Sanders, Robert Wills and President Schultz.

Dr. Bruce N. Wolff Heads Riding Club

Dr. Bruce N. Wolff was elected as the new president of the Gettysburg Riding Club at its annual re-organization meeting Tuesday evening at the engine house. John D. Teeter was chosen as vice president; Dr. David Solomon, secretary, and Charles Weaver, treasurer.

S. Blaine Miller, Carl Oyler, Charles Jacobs and LeRoy H. Winebrenner were elected to the board of directors. The club voted to join the Maryland-Pennsylvania Horse Show Association and named these representatives to that group: Mr. Winebrenner, Dr. Solomon and Wilson Clapsaddle. The next meeting of the local club will be held at the Gettysburg Country Club January 20 when there will be a covered dish supper, movies and other entertainment.

Otis Ewing, 72, Expires Today

Otis Ewing, 72, of 123 Breckenridge St., died at the Warner Hospital at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage.

Mr. Ewing, a cook at one of the local fraternities, was stricken in his room at his home at 9:45 o'clock this morning and was removed to the hospital in the fire department ambulance. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

TWO GIVE BLOOD

The Red Cross chapter sent two blood donors to the Warner Hospital Tuesday for Mrs. Ruth Mort, a patient there. The donors were Miss Gladys Rummel and Mrs. Clark Smith.

Ladies' Night Held By Torch Club Here

Ladies' night was observed by the Gettysburg - Adams County Torch club at its December dinner meeting Tuesday evening at Trinity United Church of Christ. Dr. Clarence Bartholomew, president, presided.

There were violin selections by Mrs. Betty S. Harmon and then Dr. Ralph D. Heim of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary faculty showed slides and told of his trip last summer to the Near East and the Far East. Col. Edwin Johnson is the club's program chairman.

W. WAYBRIGHT IS PRESIDENT FOR FARMERS

Wilbur Waybright was elected president of the Gettysburg Young Farmers' Association Tuesday evening at a meeting at Gettysburg High School. He will succeed Francis Walker.

Roy Weaver was elected vice president; Milton Hoffman, secretary; Lake Ridinger, treasurer; Lyndale Brandon, director of public relations; and Wilbur Danner and Norman Zepp, directors.

Named as the Program committee were Roy Weaver, Charles Sterner, David Redding, Richard Waybright and John Swartz. David Redding and Ray Weatherly were received as new members. States Cooperative fieldman, discussed poultry management, illustrating his talk with slides.

Places "On Way Out"

High grade chicks can provide approximately five dozen more eggs per year per hen, he told the group in stressing both the need for buying better grade chicks and for vaccination of the poultry for New Castle disease and bronchitis.

Placing of poultry on the range is "on the way out," he said. He urged that the birds be worked at 12 weeks and then monthly. In the laying house there should be one nest for every five chickens, from two to three square feet of space should be provided per bird plus five feet of feeder space and two feet of water space.

Feeders should be arranged in rows and nests placed near the door. He recommended feeding all mash as a time saver and discussed use of antibiotics to fight disease. One man should be able to handle 3,400 layers or 40,000 broilers per year, he said. He showed slides of new types of housing for chickens.

Foth Baby's Rites Set For Thursday

Private funeral services for Jenny Louise Foth, ten-month and 20-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Foth, Gettysburg R. 2, will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the Bender Funeral Home with the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser officiating. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery. There will be no viewing.

The infant's death Tuesday morning at the Warner Hospital was caused by bronchial pneumonia, Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said. The child became ill about midnight Monday and was removed to the hospital early Tuesday morning, with the death occurring there. An autopsy was performed Tuesday afternoon to determine the cause of death.

Mrs. Foth was a patient at the hospital at the time her daughter was brought there, recuperating from an operation following a rupture of an internal vessel. Survivors include the parents; two sisters, Tamara Jane and Marcy Ann, and a brother, Robert Barton Foth II, all at home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Barton H. Foth, Arendtsville, and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Paul M. Rohrbaugh, Gettysburg.

Crash Reported At Intersection

Damage totaled $425 Tuesday evening at 6:10 o'clock when Winnie F. Arnold, Fourth St., Biglerville, driving a 1948 model car on S. Washington St., went through a red traffic light at the intersection with W. Middle St. and ran into an eastbound 1958 station wagon driven by Atty. John A. MacPhail, Gettysburg R. 2, borough police reported today. Police said the station wagon was turned in the opposite direction as a result of the crash. No one was injured.

A charge of operating a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants and a traffic light violation were filed by police before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore. Miss Arnold was released under $500 bail for a hearing this afternoon before Baschore.

NAME COUNTY MAN AS DRIVER OF DEATH CAR

A 30-year-old Hanover R. 4 bricklayer was identified in testimony at a coroner's inquest in York Tuesday as the driver of a car which struck and fatally injured Bruce Allen Gladfelter, 65, Hanover R. 5, in Penn Twp. November 12.

The coroner's jury in its verdict did not mention the name of the alleged driver, Marlin Topper, 30, of near Irishtown in Adams County, but found that Gladfelter came to his death "by careless driving on the part of the driver and not stopping at the scene of an accident."

Township Police Chief Richard J. Hahn testified that he interviewed Topper the day after the accident and quoted him as saying (Continued On Page 13)

R. C. DEADLINE FRIDAY

Friday is the deadline for the Adams County Red Cross to meet its Christmas commitments for veterans' hospitals and army posts. Mrs. Peggy P. Hill, executive secretary, said today. Persons and groups who have volunteered to make donations to help fill those quotas are asked to get their gifts in promptly.

82 Suffocated, Trampled To Death In Store Blaze As Xmas Shoppers Panic

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Fire raged through a crowded department store in Bogota Tuesday night, killing 82 persons and injuring 50, according to the official count.

Most of the victims were women. Almost all were suffocated or trampled in the panic which raged through the crowds of Christmas shoppers.

The fire raged for two hours before being brought under control. The fire broke out in the middle of the store. Those in front escaped to the street. Those in the back of the store were cut off by a sheet of flames.

Fire extinguishers along the walls were ignored.

Alberto Mazuera, manager of the store, said that when the Christmas lights exploded "The fire went up to the ceiling in a burst of smoke."

Young Expectant Mother Slain

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A tiny crib stood at the foot of the still bloody bed. Soft white blankets edged in satin were gently folded over its sides in anticipation of a birth.

But the birth will never come. The expectant mother, Mrs. Janice Ora Porter, 24, is dead, victim of a savage assault and a bullet in the brain.

Her body, trussed with wire, gagged and blindfolded, was discovered Tuesday by her father-in-law when he returned to his home near here where she and her husband lived.

Sheriff's deputies following footprints in the snow arrested David S. Smith, 20, who lived just up the road from the brutal slaying scene. They said he admitted the killing. He is being held for investigation of murder.

Smith was quoted as saying he had planned for two or three days to criminally assault Mrs. Porter.

GIVE PROGRAM 3 TIMES AT GRADE SCHOOL

A Christmas program will be presented at the Keefe Elementary School building Thursday and Friday, it was announced today by the principal, Richard A. Folkenroth. The program will be given three times so that parents and the entire student body at the school will be able to see it.

The program will be presented for the parents at 2:15 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The other performances will be for the students.

The program follows: The Sixth Grade Chorus sings: "Christmas Tree Round," "Christmas Bells," "Carol Of The Shepherds," "Silent Night" and "O Come All Ye Faithful."

"The French Creche": A Christmas custom from France in which the towns people, as did the kings and shepherds, came to the manger, presented by children from Third and Fourth Grades.

"Don't Look": First Grade gives some Christmas advice in acted verse.

"Could One Of These Be You?": Second Grade follows with more advice, reminding that Christmas time is sharing and giving time, not just receiving time.

"White Christmas": Presented by a sextet of girls from the Sixth Grade chorus.

"Mr. Twitty's Christmas Dream": An original fantasy presented by Fifth and Sixth Grades children.

Richard Krick is the general director of the program. Mr. Krick also directed the art work and wrote the script. Mrs. Barbara Strickhouser is the music director. Mrs. Charles Sloat is the First Grade coordinator. Miss Jean Biggs is Second Grade coordinator. Mrs. Betsy Rosenberger and Miss Barbara Hankey are the coordinators for the French Creche. Mrs. Relda Tilberg and Mrs. Kay Gray are the narrators. Mrs. Anna Stahl and Mrs. Rebekah Fox are the consultants.

JAILED FOR COURT

Paul Humes, York Springs, entered a plea of guilty to a check forgery charge Tuesday afternoon filed by Jack Hershey, a York Springs merchant, at a hearing before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore. Humes was jailed in default of $500 bail for the next term of sentence court.

SEEK FOOD FOR 50 FAMILIES AT CHRISTMAS

A local Explorer Scout post is hoping to fill 50 food baskets for needy families through a "movie" program to be held Saturday.

Explorer Post 79, sponsored by St. James Lutheran Church, has arranged with the Majestic Theater to show a movie Saturday morning at 10 o'clock to which admission will be by donations of food, youngsters, or adults, may attend the movie by giving cans of food, bread, or any other type of foodstuff for admission.

Eugene Phiel, advisor for the post, said the cost of the film is being defrayed through courtesy of the theater and the Gettysburg National Bank.

To Use Holiday Bureau

The food baskets will be presented to the 50 needy families, whose names were secured through the Gettysburg Holiday Bureau, by the Explorers on next Tuesday night, December 23, and Wednesday, December 24, during the day. Transportation for the Explorers and the food baskets will be provided by members of the Kiwanis Club.

Phiel said the Explorers will visit grocery stores of the town Saturday to seek donations toward the food baskets. Among the Explorers scheduled to take part are Thomas Evans, Barry, Larry and Rodney Fair, Barry Bixler, Jack Bucher, Thomas McKenney, Jerry Neth, Stanley Prosser, Charles Sheely, William Swope, James Wentz and William Shoemaker Jr.

Phiel expressed the hope that there will be a good attendance at the movie and that grocers contacted will be generous, noting that "some of these families have from eight to 11 children and if they are to have a good Christmas as far as food is concerned, it will be necessary to have quite a large basket available for each family."

Persons wishing to donate food stuffs may leave them at the theater Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

BULLETINS

HONG KONG (AP)—A recent arrival from Red China reports 1,000 wounded and "badly mutilated" Chinese Communist soldiers were flown from the Tibetan capital of Lhasa to Peiping last October.

The information tended to confirm recent reports of fresh anti-Communist uprising in Tibet, the semi-independent territory in southwestern China which the Communists invaded in 1950.

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope

John XXIII convoked 20 newly created cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church today and conferred upon them emblems of their princely rank.

The 77-year-old supreme ruler of the church sat on a throne in the Vatican Palace's Consistorial Hall as each of his new counselors of the Sacred College of cardinals approached to receive his biretta, the square red cap.

Twenty of the 23 cardinals that the pontiff had created Monday attended. They included the new American cardinals, Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston and John Cardinal O'Hara of Philadelphia.

Red Chinese Drop Mao As President In "Demotion"

By NATE POLOWETZKY

TOKYO (AP)—Mao Tse-tung is stepping down as President of Red China, Peiping confirmed today, but it insisted he is still boss.

After keeping it secret a week, Peiping radio let China's 600 millions in on the news. The shift was reported last weekend on Formosa, and Warsaw diplomats got confirmation Tuesday.

Despite Peiping's disclaimer, there was a feeling in Hong Kong, Seoul and Nationalist Formosa that Mao is being downgraded by the Communist apparatus and will eventually be stripped of power.

Said To Be "Voluntary"

This opinion is based largely on reports of popular resentment in China over the commune system, which deprives the Chinese of their individuality and puts them to live in communities where their every action is subject to strict orders from above.

Peiping's broadcast today gave no clue on Mao's successor but speculation has centered around Marshal Chu Teh, now vice chairman of the government. Chu, at 72, is seven years older than Mao. (Continued On Page 13)

METHODIST CHORAL WILL SING CANTATA

Soloists in the cantata, "The Music of Christmas," to be presented Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the York Springs Methodist Church are Miss Judy Naugle, soprano; Harold King and Bill Beane, tenors; and Mrs. Robert Rhoads, alto. The youth choir will also sing within the cantata.

Miss Janet Bittinger is accompanist, and Mrs. Rhoads, director.

In the service, Miss Bittinger will play the prelude and Donald Miller and Beane will lead the devotions. Congregational singing will include the carols, "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "Joy to the World" and "Silent Night."

The cantata will open with a prologue and "Holy Night," sung by the choir. Other music will be "He Shall Feed His Flock," Mrs. Rhoads, the youth chorus and the choir; "O Little Town of Bethlehem," women's chorus and choir; "Good Tidings," Miss Naugle, women's chorus and choir; "Glory Be To God," women's chorus and choir; "The Magi," men's chorus and choir; "In Our Hearts," King and Beane, and "The Living Song" and the benediction response, the choir.

PREPARE FOR

used January 1 as the deadline date for assessment additions. Two years ago, after conferring with the school boards, May 15 was set as the deadline.

The commissioners said their action this morning did not affect the school boards and townships, but said they plan to notify the schools and townships of the county and suggest that the school boards and township supervisors consider the possibility of adopting the same date in order to achieve standardization of the time for adding properties to the assessment rolls.

Up for discussion, but with no immediate action taken, was the possibility of the county making available some type of standard marker which could be placed by the supervisors to mark the township lines in the county. The marker would be placed along roads at the edges of townships. A number of nearby counties have adopted the placing of township markers as a convenience to residents of the county. Chief Assessor D. Walker Woods told the commissioners, adding that there is often confusion on the part of residents not being sure where they should vote, or in which township they reside.

Red Cross Helping Burned Out Family

The Adams County chapter of the Red Cross is receiving donations of clothing and furnishings for the family of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pfeiffer whose home near Fontaineau was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning.

The family lost all its belongings including clothing, furniture, some cash and Christmas presents for some of the four small children in the family.

DOE AT CLOSE RANGE

Mrs. John Horner and her eight-year-old daughter, Susan, Gettysburg R. 1, this morning got a closer look at deer than most hunters.

Mrs. Horner was driving her daughter from the Horner home to the main highway early this morning, so Susan could take the school bus. Two deer came rushing across the main highway directly at the Horner car. A few feet from the car they separated and one passed a foot from the auto on one side. The other, in turning to pass on the other side of the auto, lost its footing and sprawled beside the vehicle. After a struggle, it regained its feet and fled on into the woods.

SEEKS DIVORCE

TRUCKERS DIED OF CARBON GAS

LANCASTER, Mo. (AP) — A coroner's jury has ruled that carbon monoxide gas caused the deaths of two Arkansas truck drivers in a truck stop bunkhouse here Dec. 7.

The verdict said the source of the gas was not known. State officials have said that the gas apparently came from a liquefied gas heater.

Tuesday's inquest concerned only the deaths of John Parker, 26, Little Rock, and William Briner, 22, Malvern, both employees of the D. W. Hoskins Co. of Malvern. The jury wasn't asked to consider the death of Louis Lee Warden, 24, Little Rock, who died in the bunkhouse under similar circumstances Dec. 5. Warden also was a driver for the Hoskins company. The Arkansas state medical examiner has said he too died of carbon monoxide poisoning.

FIRE RAVAGES S. CALIFORNIA

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif. (AP) — Tragedy and sorrow lie today in the wake of a four-day brush fire that has flared over more than 50,000 acres of Southern California hills and canyons and is still out of control on nearly half its 75-mile perimeter.

While more than 2,000 men fight the stubborn flames, residents pick their way over the blackened earth to the ruins of their homes and summer cabins. Eighteen structures have been destroyed. More than 200 are still in peril.

In picturesque San Juan Canyon, scenic beauty is turned to rubble and ashes.

The canyon people who have returned share the common sadness of loss.

600 Pupils Escape Burning School

CHICAGO (AP) — About 600 pupils in a grade school in suburban Kenilworth fled to safety Tuesday when fire broke out in the basement of the two-story building.

Custodian Willie Love sounded the school alarm when he saw smoke. The blaze was extinguished quickly by automatic sprinklers.

Fire Chief Rod Porter of suburban Winnetka said the fire had started from a cigarette on a wooden ledge in a closet. He said damage to the school was negligible.

FILING CHARGES

State police today placed charges against a number of persons whom they are accusing of participating in a number of burglaries throughout various sections of the county. It was not immediately known whether the burglaries include the recent one at the court house.

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Corum, a small town boy who found fame in New York and contentment in the blue grass of Kentucky, died Tuesday night at the age of 63.

Cancer of the lung, complicated by pneumonia, ended his dual career of nationally syndicated sports columnist for the New York Journal American and president of Churchill Downs race track in Louisville, Ky.

He died in New York's St. Luke's Hospital, but as always he did not miss a deadline. He became critically ill over the weekend, and ironically the newspaper for which he worked will not carry his obituary today. Along with eight other metropolitan dailies, it has suspended publication because of a deliverers' strike.

Mourned By Many
Max Kase, sports editor of the Journal American, said today: "This comes as a great personal shock to me. There is nothing I can add to the wonderful record he has made as a man."

Sports writers and sportsmen across the nation echoed Kase's feelings.

Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, the famous 84-year-old horse racing trainer, said Corum's death was a great loss to racing. "There's nothing you can say about him that isn't real good. He was a writer."

Born at Speed, Mo., July 20.

PROPOSAL IN N. Y. STRIKE IS REJECTED

NEW YORK (AP) — Members of the striking Newspaper Mail and Deliverers Union have rejected a federal mediator's proposal to vote again on an old publishers' contract offer.

The strike against nine major New York dailies began when the union members rejected the same offer last Dec. 9.

The membership's rejection of the proposal Tuesday night reversed the union negotiating committee's earlier agreement to re-submit the $7 wage package offer to union members Thursday.

Settlement Hopes Dim
The action dimmed hopes of a settlement soon. Further bargaining sessions have not been arranged. Both sides are expected to meet today to set up further negotiations.

Sam Feldman, union president, said the strike would continue. Joseph F. Finnegan, national director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, had obtained the agreement for a new vote.

Finnegan's proposal was presented to 1,500 members of the 4,500-member union at a regularly scheduled monthly meeting. They refused it with a majority estimated at 80 per cent by Asher Schwartz, union attorney.

Cites Local Need For New Services

There are abundant "services" that are available to children, but also some that possibly are needed and are still not available," Mrs. Henry T. Bream, director of the Lutheran Inner Mission for the Central Pennsylvania Synod, told the Upper Adams Lions Club at its meeting Tuesday evening in the Biglerville Elementary School cafeteria. She was introduced by M. Francis Coulson, program chairman.

How can you talk about service to children and not involve the whole family?" she said. "How interwoven, how dovetailed are all programs for meeting the needs of children, whether they are financial, educational, physical, spiritual, emotional, recreational or social needs? Any program that has been developed to help a child grow in wisdom, in stature and in favor with God and man is worthy of our Christian concern."

HARRISBURG (AP) — Some 1,200 of the lowest paid state employees today received an increase of six cents an hour.

Dr. John H. Ferguson, secretary of administration, said the action raises the minimum pay scale for state employees to $1.15 an hour.

He said the raise applied to workers in the state service as library helpers, x-ray and laboratory assistants, and domestics, maids and seamstresses employed in state owned and operated institutions.

Bill Corum, Sports Figure, Dies Tuesday Night At 63

1895, Corum began building that reputation in 1925 when he joined the Journal American as a baseball writer. That was the same year he saw his first Kentucky Derby, and he loved and praised the classic race for 3-year-olds so much that in 1949, when Col. Matt Winn died, he was the logical choice for the presidency of the tradition-steeped race track.

Corum continued in his sports writing job, but for two months each spring he went to the blue grass country to conduct the spring meeting of which the derby is the premier attraction.

Youngest Combat Major
William H. Veenneman, chairman of the board of Churchill Downs, said no thought has been given to a successor immediately.

Corum first entered the hospital during the World Series in October but was discharged last month. He is survived by his mother, brother Clayton, and a son, Robert, in the Army and stationed at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

Corum attended school at Bonville, Mo., Wentworth Military Academy at Lexington, Mo., and the University of Missouri. He received his degree from Missouri while serving in France during World War I. He was the youngest combat major in the war, receiving his commission at the age of 23 with the 101st Infantry, Regiment, 26th Division.

MACASKILL IS
SPEAKER FOR LADIES' NIGHT

Ladies Night was observed at the Christmas program and dinner gathering of the Littlestown Rotary Club on Tuesday evening in the social hall of St. John's Lutheran Church. The banquet was served by the women of St. John's, in the hall attractively decorated for the holiday season.

The Rev. Robert A. Macaskill, pastor of the Gettysburg Presbyterian Church, was the guest speaker and addressed the group on the "Significance of Christmas," saying that "Rotary is an exemplification of the spirit of Christmas, dispelling men's fears and bringing joy and love, the greatest gift on earth." The Rev. Mr. Macaskill was introduced by the Rev. David S. Kammerer, of the program committee in charge of arrangements for the evening.

Miss A. Marie Budde, of town, and vocal music instructor at Gettysburg College, presented two of her students: Miss Florence Duckworth, who sang "Gesù Bambino," and Donald Gutekunst, who sang "O, Holy Night," and then as duet selections, "I'll See You Again," from "Bitter Sweet," "Winter Wonderland," and "We Wish You A Merry Christmas." They were accompanied by the piano by Miss Budde.

Miss JoAnn Scott, local Ninth grade student, provided dinner music on the piano. President Frank E. Basehoar, presided. Each lady present received a red rose. Thomas Gibbons was a guest of Thomas C. McSherry, and Harry Smith was a guest of Arthur E. Bair Sr.

The Rotarians will meet next Tuesday, 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's Hotel. The program will be in charge of the music committee, Paul R. Snyder, chairman.

Party For Auxiliary
A covered dish supper and Christmas party were held in conjunction with the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Kingsdale Fire Company No. 1 on Monday evening in the engine house, along the Taneytown Rd. Prior to the meal, the invocation was offered by Mrs. Paul E. King. The supper table contained 33 different items of food.

Carols were sung by the group. Santa Claus arrived to give treats to the members and distribute gifts. Piano selections were played by Patsy and Dorothy Harner. The guess package, given by Mrs. Luther Hess, was received by Mrs. Henry Barnes. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Donald Hess, Mrs. Luther Hess, Mrs. Paul King and Mrs. Charles Koutz.

During the brief business, reports were given by Mrs. Henry Barnes, secretary and Mrs. Lester Myers, treasurer. The following hostess committee was appointed to serve for the next meeting on Monday, January 19, Mrs. William J. Lippy, Mrs. Glenn Lippy and Mrs. Robert Miller.

A Christmas party will be held in connection with the second December meeting of Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion tomorrow evening, 7 o'clock at the post home, E. King St. Arrangements are in charge of the house committee.

TO REVIVE OLD
XMAS SERVICE

A century-old Christmas service which was arranged by the late Rev. Dr. Henry Harbaugh, a professor at the Mercersburg Seminary, will be followed by the congregation of St. Paul's United Church of Christ, New Oxford, for its Christmas eve service December 24 at 10 p.m.

Dr. Harbaugh served the Reformed Church as pastor in Lewisburg, Lancaster and Lebanon before joining the seminary faculty. He earned a reputation as an author, educator, hymnologist, preacher and poet, and was considered by many as one of the most productive among the Pennsylvania Germans.

His Christmas service includes a number of canticles and chants based on passages in Luke's account of the birth of Jesus, along with anthems, hymns and other liturgical elements.

The children's division of the Sunday School will present the first part of the program Christmas eve at 7:30 o'clock in Emmanuel United Church of Christ, Abbotstown. The Youth Fellowship will present a play, "Christmas in the Cobbler's Shop."

No. 31 will have a Christmas party following the weekly business on Thursday, 7:30 p.m., in the lodge rooms on E. King St. There will be an exchange of 50-cent gifts. Refreshments will be served by the welfare committee. Gifts will be exchanged and secret sister revealed at the holiday party meeting of the Starr Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday at the home of the class teacher, Luther W. Ritter, Glenwyn Drive.

The Littlestown Lions Club will hold the annual family night Christmas party in the social hall of St. John's Lutheran Church on Thursday evening. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. The program is in charge of the boys and girls committee, composed of Walter C. Myers, John D. Basehoar and Harry D. Feesser.

NEW YORK (AP) — Church World Service, relief arm for American Protestant and Orthodox churches, has adopted a $3,925,720 budget for its program of aiding the world's needy people in 1959. The figure is a half million dollars larger than in 1958.

Class Elects At Party
Election of officers took place during the business session at the December meeting and Christmas party of the Hustlers' Class of Redeemer's United Church of Christ, held on Monday evening in the church social hall. New officers elected were: President, Mrs. P. Bernard Weaver; vice president, Mrs. Clement A. Sneeringer; secretary, Miss Malva Dutera; and treasurer, Mrs. George C. DeHoff.

The business was in charge of the retiring president, Mrs. Margaret Wehler, who heard reports from the retiring secretary, Mrs. Monroe J. Stavely and the treasurer, Mrs. DeHoff. A note of thanks was read from Mrs. Lloyd E. Crouse. A report on the Christmas bazaar held by the congregation was given by Mrs. Theron W. Spangler, who thanked all those who helped in any way to make the affair a success. Mrs. Glenn Flinchbaugh also thanked all who helped with the bazaar. It was decided to hold the bazaar again next December.

Twenty-seven members and two visitors were present at the meeting, and the holiday program preceded the business. Mrs. Wehler was in charge of the program, which was as follows: Group carols, accompanied on the piano by Miss Louise Dutera; Apostles' Creed in unison; Scripture and prayer, Mrs. Wehler; reading, "Once Again It's Christmas," Mrs. Ralph Bowers; group carols; reading, "A Christmas Story," Mrs. Richard Yingling; Lord's Prayer in unison.

Santa Claus arrived to distribute gifts. Secret sisters were revealed and new sisters chosen for 1959. The guess package, contributed by Mrs. Stavely, was received by Mrs. Flinchbaugh. The pastor, the Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, spoke briefly on the origin of the Christmas carol "Silent Night, Holy Night." Colored slides of class and congregational activities were shown by Theron W. Spangler, class teacher. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wehler, Mrs. Yingling, Mrs. Bowers and Mrs. Paul H. Stonessier. The refreshment table was attractively decorated for the holiday season. The next regular meeting of the Hustlers will be held on Monday, January 19, 7:30 p.m. at the church.

Herbert T. Senesman was named vice president; Howard G. Baum, secretary, and Walter P. Shuman, treasurer.

FRANKLIN COUNTY

Franklin County Coroner J. D. Goshen announced that an inquest into the death of two Path Valley children following a two-car accident near Dry Run November 23 will be held Monday in Dry Run. The coroner had deferred the inquest because of the hospitalization of material witnesses, also injured in the collision.

Victims of the collision were Arlene Neil, 2½, and her three-month-old brother, Robert, children of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Neil, 28, of near Dry Run. The children were passengers in a car operated by their father when, it was involved in a collision with a car driven by Donald Miller, 17, of Concord. The collision occurred on the "back road" between Dry Run and Concord.

An aged woman found helplessly ill on the floor of her unheated Chambersburg apartment died Monday in the Chambersburg Hospital.

Mrs. Minnie M. Kaufman, 88, was rushed to the hospital Sunday after neighbors looked into a window and saw her lying unconscious in the apartment where she lived alone.

Police broke into the dwelling where temperatures had dropped to sub-freezing levels after a space heater fire had gone out. Coroner J. D. Goshen said the woman had suffered a stroke probably "several days ago" and was unable to summon aid.

Her body was "very cold" when found, Goshen said.

Issues Warning On School Decorations

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Charles H. Boehm today cautioned all school officials to observe state and local regulations for the fireproofing of Christmas trees and flammable holiday decorations displayed in schools.

"The department is making an official request that each school administrator seek instructions from local fire-prevention agencies on the proper fireproofing of Christmas trees and decorations used in the schools," the superintendent said.

"This request is in compliance with a recommendation of the Department of Labor and Industry, which sets the fire-prevention regulations for all public buildings of the Commonwealth, including schools. The recommendation states that all Christmas trees and other decorations should be sprayed with a flame-proofing substance.

"The department also requests that all fire-prevention regulations be strictly observed in the schools so that no accidents will mark the coming joyous holiday season."

GIVES PROGRAM

"The First Christmas," a pageant in five scenes, was presented by the children of Mrs. J. B. Collins' kindergarten Tuesday with their parents as guests. The morning program was at 9:30 and the afternoon group at 1:30 o'clock. Marcy Foth and Karl Heikkinen portrayed Mary and Joseph in the morning and Jorine Van Sticht and David Daniels in the afternoon. Ellen Frank, morning group, and Peggy Lane, afternoon group, proclaimed the angel's message to the shepherds according to Luke Chapter 2. The last scene featured Mary's "Lullaby," the song "Away In A Manger" and a Christmas prayer "Thank You, Little Christ, For Christmas."

Other children in the pageant in the morning included Kenneth Smith, Gregory Swope and Teddy Wentzel as shepherds; Melissa Hand, Kathy Barnes, Deborah Tussing, Marilyn Boenau, Penny Troxell and Linda Ditzler as angels; Bill Covington, Ronnie Tomlin and Craig Coffman as wise men; Carolyn Frasca, as the star; Neil Fair, as Herod; John Bevilacqua and Lee Eddins as attendants; Tony Wieder as the innkeeper, and Ricky Newsham as the stable boy.

Additional children participating in the afternoon were Rodney Adams, Neal Kendelhart and Michael LeGay as shepherds; Kathy Shoemaker, Vallance Murdock, Justina Unger, Ellen Kennedy and Kim Blocher as angels; Bill Moorhead, Stephen Zeger and Robert Monahan as wise men; Jennifer Fair as the star; Robert Harner as Herod; Michael Held, Paul Settle as attendants; Gregory Deitch, David Long and Jimmy Williams as innkeepers, and Bruce Hill as the stable boy.

The children gave three choral readings, "Why Do The Bells of Christmas Ring?", "What Can I Give Him?" and "Wind Through The Olive Trees." There was group singing and the rhythm bands played two selections with Craig Coffman and Kathy Barnes as leaders in the morning group and Neal Kendelhart and Kathy Shoemaker in the afternoon.

The children sang "Merry Christmas To You" and presented their mothers with Christmas gardens which they had painted red, green and silver.

Santa made his annual visit to the kindergarten today. There will be Christmas parties Thursday and the kindergarten will close at 3:30 p.m. on Friday for the holidays and reopen on Monday morning, January 5.

belongs to the Girls' Athletic Association and is a former Junior Historian.

She is a member of the church choir and Westminster Fellowship at the Presbyterian Church and serves on a committee of the Adams County Council of Churches. She plans to attend college next year to prepare for a career as a medical technologist.

The DAR asked that the selection of the winner of the "Good Citizen" award be based upon dependability, truthfulness, punctuality, service, leadership, patriotism, ability to assume responsibility and unselfish interest in school, community and nation.

Miss McIlhenney will receive a "Good Citizen" award pin at the January meeting of the DAR Chapter and in February will take an examination on the U. S. Constitution and government in competition for state DAR awards.

Weather Forecast

Extended forecast for Thursday, Dec. 18, through Monday, Dec. 22. Eastern Pennsylvania, eastern New York and Midatlantic States: Temperature will average 2 to 8 degrees below normal. Turning colder Thursday, warmer Friday or Saturday, colder Sunday and warmer likely Monday. Almost daily snow or snow flurries interior of New York with little or no precipitation elsewhere until about Monday. Total precipitation ¼ inch or less.

Western Pennsylvania, western New York and West Virginia: Temperature will average 4 to 8 degrees below normal. Colder through Saturday and possibly Monday, warmer most of the area Friday and Sunday. Snow or snow flurries almost daily in north portion, with little or no precipitation in south portion until Sunday or Monday. Total precipitation generally ¼ inch or less.

STOCKS EDGE UP

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market edged slightly further into record high ground early this afternoon. The going was tough. Gains of fractions to a point among key stocks were enough to push the averages slightly higher. Numerous losses marred the advance.

Wide moves among a scattering of selected issues highlighted the performance.

he said. "I called the people to be quiet and calm and asked for the fire extinguishers and immediately called the firemen."

"Unfortunately panic spread very quickly, which was the principal cause of the deaths. There were so many people in the store that when those in the rear saw they could not get out immediately they turned to the back, crashing into the wall and jamming the stairway."

Find Bodies Kneeling
A fireman, Pedro Rodriguez Ramirez, said when he worked his way through the store with a hose, he found the stairway in the rear covered by bodies. In one rear storeroom on the first floor he found four charred bodies, in another "I found 9 or 10 young women kneeling with their arms outstretched."

President Alberto Lleras Camargo declared national mourning. The government announced it would pay for the funerals.

President Roosevelt Award
Scout Medals To Gettysburg
Youths: President Franklin Delano Roosevelt Friday personally

pinned boy scout merit badges upon 12 Gettysburg youths who had achieved distinct honors and merit in the field of scouting.

Four other Gettysburg scouts were scheduled to receive their badges from the president but because of icy dangerous roads, the machines in which they were riding were forced to return to Gettysburg because of the danger in proceeding.

The Gettysburg boy scouts, with 48 Scouts from York county were presented to President Roosevelt by Congressman Harry L. Haines at the executive offices.

The president expressed his admiration and respect for the boy scouts and told how he was interested in the scout movement, being at one time president of the Greater New York scout zone.

The four boys who were unable to reach Washington to receive their medals are: Lloyd Reed, Gilbert Reed, David Thomas and Fred Knox.

Designs Numerals On License Plates: Pennsylvania's new 1954 license plates made their appearance in Gettysburg Friday.

Gettysburgians will be interested to learn that the design for the numerals on the new plates was made by Elwood Myers, an employee of the state highway department and son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers, East Broadway.

Masons Elect 1934 Officers: The Good Samaritan lodge 336 of the Free and Accepted order of Masons held their annual election of officers Thursday evening.

Officers elected were: Ernest D. Bushman, worshipful master; S. Lester Scott, senior warden; Frederick G. Pfeffer, junior warden; Charles W. Myers, treasurer; James M. Caldwell, Charles E. Stable, Irvin L. Taylor, trustees; John D. Settle, retiring worshipful master, representative in grand lodge.

Aumen Elected Chief Of Fire Department; Most Of Slate Wins: With 106 of the 124 members on the rolls voting, practically the entire ticket headed by James B. Aumen, former chief, was elected at the annual election meeting of the Gettysburg fire company, Thursday evening.

The meeting was held in the parlor of the engine house and the attendance was said to have been the largest in the history of the company. President John Storm presided.

At the November meeting, nominations for the various offices were made by two rival factions in the company and two complete tickets were placed in the field.

George B. Aughinbaugh, vice president of the company, an Aumen - backed candidate, was elected president. Aumen won the post of chief by a majority of seven votes. Others elected were: vice president, Lawrence E. Oyley; recording secretary, S. Richard Eisenhart; financial secretary, George March; treasurer, Joseph E. Codori; first assistant chief, Horace E. Smiley; second assistant chief, Charles J. Myers; fire marshal, D. E. Woodward; chaplain, Richard Cole; representative to the state firemen's association, Cyril Staub; representative to the southeastern firemen's association, Emory Strausbaugh.

49th Birthday: Dr. W. E. Tilberg, dean at Gettysburg college and Boy Scout executive for Adams county, today quietly observed his 49th birthday. The Times joins other friends in felicitating Doctor Tilberg.

Today's Talk

ON MEETING A HAPPY PERSON

It takes such a small incident to touch a personality into a flame of light and wonder. Like meeting a happy person when least expected. Incidents, however, are among the important happenings of each one of our days. The little things grow suddenly into the big things, and this enlarges life itself.

I believe that every one of us deserves a goodly portion of happiness, and it ought to be given over to us. We need it to create the expected! It is possible to condition ourselves to the meeting of a happy person. It takes self-training, though. We need to brood over thoughts the same as a hen does over her expected hatching.

The greatest gift God has given to man is that of the mind. It alone should be the great endowment from our Creator. With what power and beauty are His revelations exposed! You meet God when you meet a happy person, and He spreads Himself, edging His way into the hearts of millions.

Who can adequately measure the influence of a happy person, or indeed a multitude of happy persons? Happy persons are the salt of this earth. They are the equalizers of man's dreams and hopes for perfect freedom in the world. The mere meeting of a happy person is an event of major value.

Each one of us gains new happiness every time we contact a happy person. We are challenged to learn from that one. Happiness is a medicine. It has been demonstrated time and again. A happy worker is always the most efficient. Such a one is an inspiration for every other person in an organization. You can pick out the happy people in any crowd. They are the ones to whom to tie!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Bodily Ease"

Just Folks

YOUNG DAD IN TOY SHOP

Seldom sigh for money;
Take life as a joke;
When the days are sunny
Don't mind being broke.Don't go chasing riches
Like some fellows do;
My palm seldom itches
For a golden sou.But inside a toy shop
Money counts with me
In a youngsters' toy shop
I want all I see.In my wallet fishing
For what I can spare,
All the time a-wishing
I were a millionaire.Mother there beside me
Tells me in the shop:
Glad she's there to guide me
Or I'd never stop.Once before I'm lying
Cold and still and white,
I'd like the joy of buying
Every toy in sight.

Kadel Building; Sweetland Loss $10,000: One of the most disastrous fires in recent years swept through the J. H. Kadel building, center square, early Monday morning, causing upwards of $35,000 damage.

Starting in the basement under the Sweetland, a book, candy and ice cream store on the Baltimore street side of the Kadel building, the flames ate their way into the storeroom above, swirling up the stairway to the second floor and communicated with the Anne E. Hollebaugh three - story apartment building next door.

Next to the damage to the Kadel building, the greatest loss was sustained by Nicholas Meligakes, proprietor of the Sweetland, who estimated damage to his stock and fixtures in excess of $10,000.

Charles J. Myers, assistant chief of the Gettysburg fire company, expressed the opinion that the fire originated in electric light wires around several electric light meters in the basement under the Sweetland.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Russell Murray, who with her husband occupies the third floor of the Hollebaugh building. Mrs. Murray rose about 4:30 o'clock this morning to wash and upon entering the kitchen of her apartment she noticed flames coming up through a large air vent in the Kadel building.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Revenue Department Monday authorized its enforcement agents to set up roadblocks at border points during the holiday season to catch any motorists who may try to bring untaxed cigarettes into the state.

The move was adopted to discourage traffic in untaxed cigarettes during the holiday period.

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP)—Prof. Wolfgang Pauli, Nobel prize-winning Swiss physicist, died in a hospital Monday. He was 58.

Pauli received the Nobel Prize in Physics in 1945 for "Pauli principle," a formula setting out certain basic laws on the inter-relationship of electrons.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Inter-state Commerce Commission was asked Tuesday to suspend Lehigh Valley Railroad's proposal to end all main line passenger service Jan. 12, pending an investigation and public hearings.

The request was made by the Public Utility Commission in a letter to the ICC. The PUC asked that the train service — a large part of it through Pennsylvania—be continued until next May 21 so that objections could be heard. At the same time, letters were sent to officials in 12 cities and boroughs on the railroad's line advising them of the PUC move.

Guy R. Johnson, PUC transportation director, advised mayors and burgesses of communities affected by Lehigh Valley's proposal to contact ICC Secretary Harold D. McCoy in Washington if they want to join in the protest.

The letters went to Allentown, Bethlehem, Easton, Wilkes-Barre, Sayre, Towanda, Slatington, Lehigh, Jim Thorpe, White Haven, Pittston and Tunkhannock. Lehigh Valley now provides intrastate service at those points.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Insurance Commissioner Francis R. Smith today praised the operation of a 1957 law giving a firm legal basis for the sale of nonassessable policies by mutual fire and casualty insurance companies.

A nonassessable clause in an insurance policy provides that the policyholder may not be assessed for his proportionate share of the liabilities incurred by the company.

Less than 1 per cent of the nearly half billion dollars a year paid for insurance premiums written by mutual companies involve assessable policies, he said.

"We're having fine success with the 1957 law," he told a newsmen. "Since last April 1, nearly half of the 345 mutual insurance companies doing business in this state have taken out certificates."

These certificates are required for firms which offer a nonassessable feature in their policies.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The search resumed today for the slasher of a 7-year-old girl after police released an unemployed laborer who said he had done it.

The laborer, William Myrick, 28, was arrested Tuesday on a telephone tip. When little Deborah Poisson saw him she insisted he wasn't the man who cut her across the face with a razor Saturday night outside her home.

Myrick stuck to his story, then changed it and said he wasn't the man. Finally, he was given a lie detector test Tuesday night. The test indicated he wasn't the man, police said.

VFW Furnish Funds
He was taken to the psychiatric ward of Philadelphia General Hospital.

Meanwhile the Veterans of Foreign Wars Tuesday night decided to provide money so Deborah can undergo plastic surgery.

It has been feared that the little girl might be disfigured for life. It took 100 stitches to close the wound across the right side of her face.

John B. Capitolo, chief of staff of the VFW in eastern Pennsylvania, announced the decision to underwrite plastic surgery. He said Dr. Albert Seltzer, chief of plastic surgery at St. Luke's Hospital, already has agreed to perform the operation.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Inter-state Commerce Commission was asked Tuesday to suspend Lehigh Valley Railroad's proposal to end all main line passenger service Jan. 12, pending an investigation and public hearings.

The request was made by the Public Utility Commission in a letter to the ICC. The PUC asked that the train service — a large part of it through Pennsylvania—be continued until next May 21 so that objections could be heard. At the same time, letters were sent to officials in 12 cities and boroughs on the railroad's line advising them of the PUC move.

Guy R. Johnson, PUC transportation director, advised mayors and burgesses of communities affected by Lehigh Valley's proposal to contact ICC Secretary Harold D. McCoy in Washington if they want to join in the protest.

The letters went to Allentown, Bethlehem, Easton, Wilkes-Barre, Sayre, Towanda, Slatington, Lehigh, Jim Thorpe, White Haven, Pittston and Tunkhannock. Lehigh Valley now provides intrastate service at those points.

Bullets Suffer 71-60 Setback At Penn State; Idle Until January 5

Gettysburg College's cagers put up a creditable performance but it was not enough as they bowed to Penn State University 71-60 Tuesday evening at University Park.

Two bad streaks proved costly to Bob Hulton's outfit. Both streaks saw the Bullets go six minutes without field goals.

The Bullets opened up fast with an 8-2 lead on a pair of fouls and by Walt McGowan and a twin-pointer by Johnny Warner. They then encountered their first scoring lapse and Penn State racked up 11 straight tallies and led 26-22 at intermission. During the first half Gettysburg could land but eight of 37 shots.

Late Spurt Fails
Again in the second half the Bullets went six minutes without a goal and at one point trailed 50-33. Gettysburg started a comeback and rallied to slash the Lions' lead to 64-56 with 3:30 minutes remaining but in the closing minutes Penn State used the free throw lane to good advantage to pull away again.

Penn State made 29 of 87 shots as compared to the Bullets' 19 of 73. The Lions also led in rebounding 59-33. Frank Grzelecki snared 17 off the boards to lead the Bullet rebounding.

Warfield's hookshot was hitting well during the game and he wound up with 24 points. McGowan racked up 21 points, making 11 of 12 free tosses and driving well for goals, particularly in the second half.

Tom Hancock and Wally Colender each landed 18 points for the Lions. Penn State's win was its first after two losses.

The Bullets (1-6) will resume their schedule Monday, January 5, when Susquehanna plays here. Gettysburg's record is:

CENTRAL TOPS NEW OXFORD 5

New Oxford High grabbed a 9-5 lead in the first period but then collapsed to suffer a 52-27 lacing at the hands of the Central High cagers at North York Tuesday evening.

It was the second reverse in three starts for the inexperienced Colonials. Central has now won four of five games.

Lefty Hoffman tabbed 15 points to lead the well-balanced attack for the winners. Phil Bankert and Bill Weikert looped nine and eight for New Oxford.

The New Oxford reserves lost their third in a row 53-33.

Next Tuesday New Oxford will play at Spring Grove.

SPORTS WORLD PAYS TRIBUTE TO BILL CORUM

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"He was a wonderful fellow—a wonderful friend and a wonderful writer. I don't think Bill had a single enemy."

Those words from Baseball Commissioner Fred Frick summed up today the tribute the sports world paid to Bill Corum, nationally syndicated columnist and president of Churchill Downs race track, who died Tuesday night in New York at the age of 63.

Comment came from key figures in many sports but most from racing figures who perhaps knew him best.

Wonderful Man, Writer
"There's nothing you can say about him that isn't real good," said Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, the 34-year-old dean of racehorse trainers. "He was a wonderful man, a wonderful writer."

"His death is a blow to the newspaper and thoroughbred racing world," said Horace Wade, the racing director at Gulfstream Park. "I think it will be an almost irreplaceable loss to racing."

Other comments: Jim and Ben Jones of Calumet Farm: "He was not only a personal friend and fellow Missourian but a great writer and we will all miss him terribly."

Max Kase, sports editor of Corum's paper, the New York Journal-American: "There is nothing I can add to the wonderful record he has made as a man."

Other Tributes
Saul Silberman, president of Tropical Park: "The sports world has lost one of its greatest figures."

John D. Schapiro, president of Laurel: "He was a man of good sound judgment. It's a great loss to racing—a great loss to all sports."

Charles H. Johnson, public relations director at Pimlico: "As the man behind the Kentucky Derby, he was the ringmaster of the biggest show in racing. But two weeks after the derby he'd come to Pimlico to cover the Preakness as just another reporter, another guy trying to make a deadline, asking no special favors."

FAIRFIELD HI IN TWIN VICTORY

Fairfield High won a basketball doubleheader from St. Joseph's at Emmitsburg Tuesday evening, the boys snaring their first victory after two losses 57-42, while the girls opened their campaign with an easy 76-41 triumph.

Dave Sprankle connected for nine goals and six of six free tosses for 24 points to lead the boys. At half time Fairfield led 23-18.

Thurmont will play at Fairfield Friday evening.

The Fairfield girls, coached by Mrs. Carole Bream, led all the way in winning the preliminary game. Yvonne Herring, Gladys Pryor and Joyce Kuykendall sparked the offense with 29, 25 and 15 points.

PRO GRID LOOP ELEVENS FAVOR PASSING GAME

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The National Football League is still a passer's league.

A look at the final regular season team statistics disclosed today that nine of the 12 teams gained more yardage through the air than on the ground.

Only the New York Giants, Cleveland Browns and Washington Redskins found a running game more profitable than passing.

The Browns, mostly on the tremendous performance of Jimmy Brown, outran every team in the pro league. Including Brown's record shattering 1,527 yards, Cleveland rushed for 2,526 yards, while passing for 1,381 yards.

Balanced Offense
New York displayed a much more balanced offense, gaining 1,725 yards on the ground and 1,605 through the air. The Giants were the league's top defensive team against rushing, allowing opponents 3.6 yards per try, and against passing, allowing 45.7 of 311 passes thrown to be completed.

Washington, which had the top passer on the basis of per pass average in Eddie LeBaron, managed 1,977 yards on the ground as against 1,696 passing.

The Baltimore Colts led the league in total offense with 4,539 yards, fairly evenly balanced between 2,412 yards passing and 2,127 yards rushing. Quarterback Johnny Unitas was the Colts' air arm and fullback Alan Ameche and halfback Lenny Moore, the main legs of the Western Conference winning club.

Second in total offense was Los Angeles with 4,406 yards. The Rams passed for 2,672 and ran for 1,734. The Pittsburgh Steelers, amassing 683 yards in whipping the Chicago Cardinals last Saturday—second highest one game total in NFL history—vaulted into third place in total offense. The Steelers, revived by quarterback Bobby Layne, passed for 2,752 yards and gained 1,521 yards on the ground the past season.

Other statistical champions: Pittsburgh took passing honors with 2,732 yards. San Francisco was the most accurate passing team with a 58.2 completion percentage.

Baltimore scored the most points 381.

Washington won punting honors on a 45.4 average.

OLSON WINS ON TKO FOUL

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Bobo Olson won his third straight comeback fight Tuesday night—a confused technical knockout over young Tommy Villa, who refused to resume the scrap after being fouled.

The California Athletic Commission begins an investigation today of the verdict, although it appears Referee Johnny Reno's decision will stand.

Olson, former middleweight champ who now lives in San Francisco, landed a low left at 1:28 of the fifth round and Villa dropped. Reno called foul, took a point from Olson's score and ordered a five-minute rest for Villa.

A 23-year-old making his 23rd fight.

3,000 Boo Foul
Villa, of San Jose Calif., said he wouldn't continue. He wasn't examined until after he reached his dressing room. There commission physician Dr. G. K. Nider of Fresno said he couldn't find any sign of swelling, or any damage.

Olson, fighting now as a light heavyweight at 175, said he hadn't thought the blow was low. He said Villa, 172, covered well and he was trying to find an opening.

A capacity crowd of 3,000 booed the foul, the five-minute rest and the decision. Villa was subbing for Bobby Jones of Oakland, Calif., who was ill.

Steelers Stay Put Despite Big Loss

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The president of the Pittsburgh Steelers has repeated his intention of keeping the club's National Football League franchise here despite a drop in attendance for home games.

Art Rooney Monday night branded "absolutely untrue" a story a Pittsburgh sports writer said was printed in a Miami newspaper that Rooney might transfer the franchise to the Florida city.

"We're doing business at the same old stand," he asserted.

Attendance for six Steeler home games the season past was 140,592, down some 22,000 from the preceding year, despite the club's best record in 11 years and a switch to a bigger stadium.

BULLETS PLACE 2 MEN ON ALL DIVISION TEAM

The Gettysburg College Bullets placed two men on the All-University Division team of the Middle Atlantic Football Conference, and five others received honorable mention in a poll of football coaches in the division announced today.

Carl Schoenborn was named to a guard position and Dave Yohn was chosen as the only center.

Lafayette College placed five players on the All-University team.

Rutgers University, which emerged the first conference champion with a perfect 4-0 record, placed four men, as these two teams dominated the all-star roster.

Each of the head football coaches of the eight division schools was asked to select an all-conference opponent team. In close voting, the coaches picked three ends, three guards and three halfbacks.

SPRING GROVE DOWNS BOLTS

Unbeaten Spring Grove turned on its best offensive show of the season Tuesday evening by trouncing winless Littlestown 80-37 on the Rockets' floor. It marked the fourth in a row for Spring Grove and was the third straight loss for the Bolts.

There was never any doubt as to the outcome after the tall Rockets raced off to a 15-3 advantage in the first period.

Jim Patterson was the only consistent scorer for Littlestown, dropping in 16 points. Dennis Mummert and Bob Glass landed 21 and 17 for Spring Grove.

The Littlestown jayvees also bowed 50-17.

Littlestown will meet Delone at Littlestown Friday evening.

SQUIRES LOSE 5TH STRAIGHT TO TROJAN 5

The Delone Catholic Squires continued their losing streak Tuesday night when the Chambersburg Trojans swamped the McSherrystown team on their own court, 65-52. Delone has now lost five straight games without a win.

Coach John Flaherty's outfit was able to keep in the running only through their outstanding foul shooting, hitting on 20 of 28. The Trojans jumped to a 14-8 lead in the initial frame although Delone got out in front in the early seconds of the game. John Gastley and Dan Miller got the Squires under way in the scoring column. Mike Tolbert, George Richardson and Bryan Jacobs starting hitting for Coach Lowell Sehlichter's squad and finally edged into the lead at the end of the period.

The second stanza turned into a nip-and-tuck affair. Paul Gebhart, Miller and Gastley matched shots with the Trojans' Bernie Washabaugh, Tolbert and Jacobs. The Squires moved to within three points of the Trojans just before the end of the half but were unable to come any closer. Chambersburg led 30-25 after two periods of play.

It was Bernie Washabaugh all the way in the third frame as he tossed in five field goals and a foul to help the Trojans outscore the Squires 23-11. Richardson chipped in with four straight charity shots and a goal. Delone's 11 points were divided among six players. It was the third frame in which Chambersburg took the commanding lead which was never threatened.

The Squires outscored their opponents 16-12 in the final quarter but to no avail. Paul Gebhart and Dan Miller turned in a fine performance in the final stanza.

Washabaugh was the big scoring man of the game as he dunked 10 field goals and three free shots for 23 points. Richardson landed 15 for the Trojans. Delone's high scorer for the evening was Miller with 16 followed by Gebhart's 15.

The Chambersburg JV's had little trouble in keeping the Delone reserves in line with the varsity squad as the little Trojans belted the Delone reserves 32-29. John Walker and Charles Salter paced the winners with 16 and 12 points respectively. Jeff Wagaman was top man for the Squires with 11 while Mark Neiderer tallied seven.

Santa and the ELF BOY

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

SYNOPSIS: Esteban is trying to reach Santa Land to get help in stopping the professor from releasing gas which will kill all the fairies. The mole and his workers dig an underground road to the edge of an ocean where Esteban hopes to find a cousin of the mole who digs through ice. As they pop out the hole, Esteban sees the strangest creature he has ever seen—the Snuke.

CHAPTER TWELVE A QUEER RIDE

The Snuke is the queerest fish in the sea. He has a small round body. At one end is a fan-like tail. At the other end is an enormous mouth three feet long. The top of its snout has notches sharp as the teeth of a saw.

It was this creature that Esteban and the mole found snoozing on the beach.

"Wake up, old fish," cried the mole.

"Wh - wh - what?" stammered the Snuke, blinking his eyes sleepily.

"What a lazy life you Snukes lead," jeered the mole. "While we moles work day and night you do nothing but lie on the beach and sleep."

"What else is there to do?" yawned the Snuke.

"We have something you can do!" said the mole. "Tell him, boy."

So Esteban told the story again of how all Fairyland was in peril and he must get to Santa Land to warn Santa.

The Snuke listened to the story with growing horror. "Oh, my!" he exclaimed. "Some of my very best friends are sea fairies. Oh my! What shall we do?"

"Do?" snapped the mole. "Take the boy to Santa Land. That's what the saw on your snout is for, isn't it—to cut through ice?"

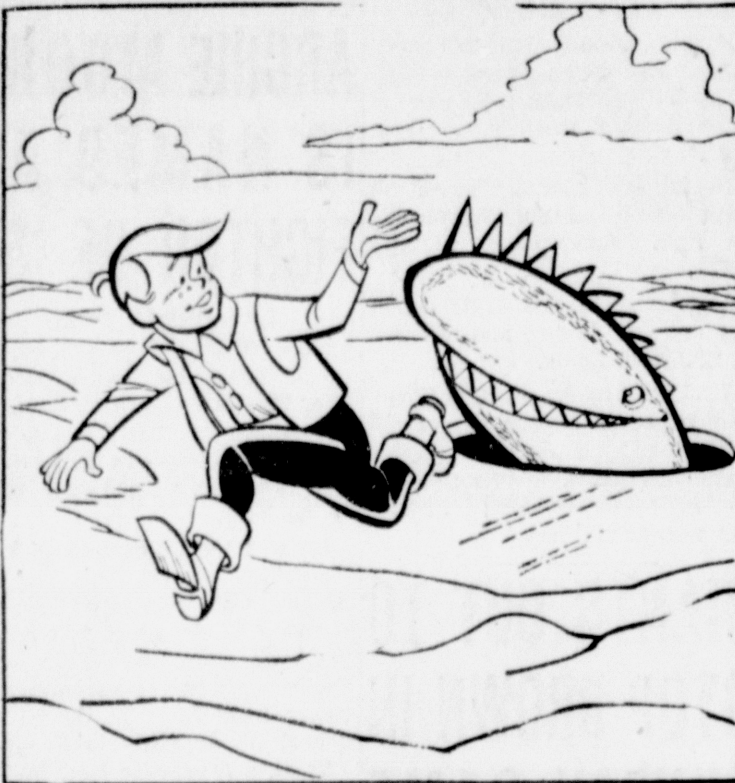

"Of course! Bug how could I carry the boy?"

"In your mouth, silly!" retorted the mole.

The Snuke's great mouth dropped open with surprise. Before he could close it again the mole pushed Esteban in and snapped the jaws shut.

It was cold and dark and wet inside the Snuke's mouth. Esteban crouched there and shivered. He had never been so uncomfortable.

But the worse was yet to come for suddenly the Snuke rocked

"Thank you!" cried Esteban, and ran for Santa's house.

back and forth, took several somersaults, and finally began to roll up and down.

"We are at sea!" thought Esteban.

He held tight to the Snuke's teeth and tried to rock and roll with the fish like a man on a ship.

When he became used to the rolling it was quite pleasant and he was just beginning to enjoy the trip when a most awful noise deafened him. It was the sound of a screaming saw.

They had reached the polar ice and the Snuke was cutting through it with the saw on top of his snout. Esteban put both hands over his ears, but he could not shut out the sound.

Just when he thought he could stand it no longer the sawing and rocking stopped and the Snuke's mouth opened. Peering out, Esteban saw a great snowy land and tucked between two white hills was a little red house with smoke curling from its chimney.

"It's Santa Land!" cried Esteban joyfully.

He leaped out of the Snuke's mouth and raced away. But when he had gone only a little way he remembered the Snuke. He ran back.

"Thank you for the ride!" he exclaimed to the fish whose big mouth was sticking out of a hole in the ice.

"Thank you!" replied the Snuke. "Remember it's my friends you're trying to save!"

NEXT APRIL 15 S. S. DEADLINE ON MINISTERS

Many ministers, Christian Science practitioners and members of religious orders who have not taken a vow of poverty, and who want social security coverage but are not yet on official record as wanting it, have only until April 15, 1959, to file a waiver certificate with the Internal Revenue Service.

Paul Dunham, district manager of the Chambersburg Social Security office, in reporting this information, advises that the privilege of registering for social security coverage on or before that date comes as the result of an extension of time granted by Congress. The extension makes it possible for a clergyman to protect his Social Security rights back to 1956, provided he had net earnings of at least $400 any part of which was from his ministerial or religious duties in a year. If a clergyman who has had two taxable years after 1956 does not elect coverage by April 15, 1959, he is permanently barred from making this election again.

Newly ordained, commissioned or licensed clergymen or clergymen who have less than two taxable years ending after 1954 have until the due date of their federal income tax return for their second taxable year in which to elect coverage and file the certificate, Mr. Dunham said.

Clergymen who elect coverage must file a social security tax return after every year in which they have net earnings of $400 or more some part of which is from the exercise of their ministry. The return is filed and the social security tax is paid at the same time and in conjunction with the regular income tax return that must be filed by April 15 of each year. The self-employment tax on 1956 earnings is three per cent on the first $4,200. For 1957 through 1958 the tax is 3 1/2 per cent. 1959 self-employment income will be subject to a 3 1/2 per cent tax on the first $4,800 payable in 1960 as the result of recent legislation that increased both the amount of salary and wages or self-employment income that will be subject to tax, and the tax itself.

Clergymen who desire additional information on social security should get in touch with his office, Mr. Dunham said.

EAST BERLIN — The Christmas party of the VFW Ladies' Auxiliary was held recently in the post home with 30 men and women present. Carols were sung and games played. Mrs. Margaret Emig won the "pig in the poke" and other prizes were won by Mrs. Erma Smyers and Kevin Krout. Mrs. Betty Kopp played the piano. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edith Gordon, Mrs. Lola Gross and Mrs. Lois Baker.

The East Berlin Lions Club is conducting a sale of locally grown pine trees on the square.

Cub Scouts of Pack 128 attended the Conewago District annual Christmas party Thursday, accompanied by their den mothers, Mrs. Harold Hoffman and Mrs. Edward Blake, and Cubmasters Harold Hoffman and Edward Blake. There was group singing, accompanied by Elizabeth Shearer, accordionist, and Margaret Kessler, pianist. Michael Freilich, teen-age conjurer, presented "Feasts Of Magic." Santa Claus visited the party. Refreshments were served.

The Boy Scouts of East Berlin will hold a Christmas dance at the VFW post home December 22.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

The Good Samaritan Inn lies midway between Jerusalem and Jericho. On a sketching trip through the Holy Land earlier in the year, I passed this famous landmark of Christianity and read again the parable it commemorates.

Throughout all ages men have, like the good Samaritan who would not pass a fellow traveler in need, dedicated themselves to helping others and by so doing helped themselves.

"In nothing do men more nearly approach the gods," said Cicero, "than in doing to their fellow man."

St. Paul wrote, "as we have therefore the opportunity, let us do good unto all men."

And in another time and another place, Emily Dickinson wrote: "If I can ease one life the aching, or cool one pain, I shall not live in vain."

SEEK NURSE IN STRANGE CASE

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Authorities in two counties are hunting a pretty nurse they say disappeared after her mother-in-law impersonated her and had her marriage annulled.

The mother-in-law Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, 54, was arraigned Monday on four felony counts involving the staged annulment.

Two men have been jailed here in connection with the strange case—one on suspicion of kidnapping—but police won't say why.

Authorities in Santa Barbara and Ventura counties pieced together this chronology:

On June 24—over the mother's objections—Olga Kupezyk, 30, who came here a year ago from Vancouver, B.C., and Frank Duncan, 29, a prominent Santa Barbara attorney, were married.

On Aug. 7 Ventura Superior Court granted an annulment of the marriage to a couple who said they were Olga and Frank and testified that the marriage had never been consummated. Police say the couple, in reality, were Elizabeth Duncan and an unidentified man.

On Nov. 17 Olga was reported missing.

The last battle ever fought between the United States and Great Britain was the Battle of New Orleans in 1815.

District Court Rules On Miners

PITTSBURGH (AP) — U. S. District Court here has ruled that coal miners no longer have to travel to Washington, D.C., in appealing claims against the United Mine Workers Welfare and Retirement Fund.

An opinion handed down Monday by Judge John W. McIlvaine stated:

"The beneficiaries of this fund, the thousands of hard-working miners who have labored years under the ground creating this fund, must not be forced to go to Washington, D.C., but should and must be able to go the Federal Court in their district in order to have their rights and claims ad-

Taneytown

AUXILIARY HAS XMAS PARTY

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Taneytown Volunteer Fire Co. had a Christmas party in connection with its regular meeting. Members and guests attended. One new member, Dottie Wachter, was accepted into the organization.

President Ethel Garber conducted the meeting. It was decided to serve dinner at the meeting January 5 of firemen's county executives. Collection of $330 for retarded children was reported.

County officers will be invited to the January meeting when officers will be installed. The meeting, in the form of a covered dish social, will be arranged by the following committee:

Flora Leister, Madeline Reifsnider, Anna Mae Crebs, Georgia Hahn Beulah Sauble, Nellie Lambert and Carrie Weishaar.

Members named to the auditing committee are Louise Riffle, Barbara Clingan and Grace Putman.

The program for the Christmas meeting included a vocal duet by Phyllis and Joan Clingan, accompanied by Sandra Shorb who also played a piano solo; recitation, Cathy Parrish; piano solo, Elaine Anders; recitation, Eddie Her-ring; vocal solo, Gale Crabbs, accompanied by Gladys Null, and recitation, Diana Sittley.

Santa Claus distributed gifts. Refreshments were served.

SANTA MAY GET STUCK HERE

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The janitor was absolutely right.

"There's somebody in the chimney and I don't think it's Santa Claus," Johnny Ybarra told the sheriff's office early Tuesday.

There was—and it wasn't Santa. Deputies found James E. Vance, 24, of Phoenix, trapped in the vent pipe.

Booked for investigation of burglary, Vance said he had jammed himself into the top of the vent shortly before 2 a.m. when officers climbed to the roof of the building in nearby Sunnyslope to investigate reports of a noise.

When the police left, Vance said, he was unable to get out. So he decided to go down. He reached the bottom, shoved his legs out and got stuck.

He tried to go up again. No luck. He hung there until Ybarra heard him and called police.

Communists Making Bold And Widespread Move To Get Control Of Mid-East

Editor's Note — The writer of this analysis is chief of bureau for The Associated Press in the Middle East. He has just returned to Beirut from visits to several of the countries.

By TOM MASTERSON

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — The Communists right now appear to be making their boldest move ever in the Middle East.

It is clear that the move is well-planned, concerted and widespread.

The new Communist surge stems from the chaos and confusion following the Lebanon insurrection and the Iraq revolt.

Its aimed at gaining a secure foothold—something the Communists never before have succeeded in doing.

The governments of most Middle East capitals are showing increasing anxiety.

Tear Iraq Apart

In Iraq, the Communists are tearing the new republic apart at the seams. For the moment, the Communist menace is more dangerous there than in any other Arab country.

The violent reception given the U.S. assistant secretary of state William M. Rountree was Communist-inspired, led and conducted.

Reporters who have visited Iraq in the past few weeks came away with this conviction—that if the Communist upsurge is left unbridled in Iraq much longer, Communist takeover of the country is inevitable.

Want UAR Broken

In Syria, the leader of all Arab Communists has gotten bold enough to call for the breakup of the United Arab Republic in its present form.

Khaled Bagdash has demanded instead a federation of Egypt and Syria each with its own government and Parliament, "free press and free elections." The two countries are now united into one under President Nasser.

Significantly Bagdash issued a manifesto in the face of increasing concern in Cairo over the growing strength of communism in Iraq.

Have Party In Lebanon

Even in traditionally anti-Communist Lebanon, the Communists for the first time have felt strong enough to form their own party.

Heretofore it was the "Communist party of Syria and Lebanon" but this has been split in two separate parties. This is a direct aftermath of the crippling six-month Lebanese insurrection.

In Iraq, Premier Abdel Karim Kassem, who is no Communist, could put down the Communist threat easily before it got too big to handle. He controls the army. Still, he goes on accepting their money.

support and letting them get stronger, presumably because he fears more the pro-Nasser elements.

Ponder Nasser Action

Likewise, Nasser, who tolerates no Communists in Egypt, could easily squash the Communists in Syria. Why he does not do so remains a mystery. For one thing, all political parties except Nasser's own are outlawed in the U.A.R. Yet he permits Bagdash and his Communist party to continue in defiance of the law, in the face of the first stirrings of unrest in the Syrian region since union with Egypt.

In Lebanon, the Communists are no threat. Yet they easily could become one if another country like Iraq fell to the Reds.

WELFARE WILL ASK NEW PLAN ON STATE AID

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Public Welfare Department planned today to ask the next session of the Legislature for central control over distribution of funds to state-aided general hospitals caring for the needy.

Harry Shapiro, public welfare secretary, disclosed the plans Tuesday in outlining his legislative program for the General Assembly, which returns to Harrisburg next month. He said the plan would bring the Commonwealth some six million dollars more in federal aid during the next biennium.

The secretary declared the proposed plan would extend a form of state aid to "all local hospitals including public sectarian and nonsectarian, rather than a selected few."

More Federal Aid

He said the new plan would "centralize the control of determining costs and the ability to pay in the department rather than in each individual hospital."

Under the present law, an appropriation is made to the department with the participating hospitals named by the Legislature.

The lawmakers also name the amount of per diem care by which each will be reimbursed.

"This (new plan) proposes that the state purchase service for the medically needy or the medically indigent from any hospital giving such service at fixed per diem rates," Shapiro said.

He said the additional six million dollars in federal aid would be made possible by Pennsylvania filling certain federal requirements to become eligible for the

SEN. BRIDGES EXPECTED TO REJECT OFFER

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky Tuesday predicted rejection of a peace offer by Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire in a brewing battle over Republican leadership in the Senate.

Bridges, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, voiced hope something can be worked out to avoid splitting Senate Republicans, whose strength has been cut to 34 by the Democratic election sweep last month.

But Cooper pledged a "no compromise" fight.

Consider Selves Liberals

Cooper is one of 10 Republican senators who voted unanimously Monday to offer their own candidates for GOP floor leader and four other party leadership posts, including the one Bridges holds.

The 10, who claim additional support in the Senate, are strong backers of Eisenhower foreign policy. Most consider themselves liberals, although leaders of the insurgent group backed away from any such tag for their movement.

Bridges, the senior Senate Republican, is backing Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois to succeed retiring Sen. William F. Knowland of California as Republican floor leader.

Has Differed

Like Knowland, Bridges frequently has differed with the Eisenhower administration on some phases of its foreign policy. Dirksen, regarded as a conservative, has in recent years been a backer of much of President Eisenhower's foreign policies.

Told of the Cooper group's action, Bridges said he hoped differences could be adjusted before the Republican caucus meets in January to elect officers.

"I hope something can be worked out so there will be some representatives of all elements in the leadership," Bridges said in talking with newsmen.

Cold Reception

Bridges said he thought Dirksen was the logical choice for GOP floor leader. But he said he would accept Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California, one of the insurgents, as GOP whip. That's the post Dirksen now holds.

But this got a cold reception from Cooper.

"We have made our decision," he said in an interview. "That decision is we are going to make a fight for the leadership with no compromise. We are going to submit our slate and that includes the post of floor leader."

The group has not yet picked any specific candidates, but is expected to do so when it meets again Dec. 30.

Bridges said he wants to continue in his post as chairman of the policy committee rather than seek the floor leader job.

SUSPEND FARE HIKE IN PHILLY

HARRISBURG (AP)—A fare increase proposed by the Philadelphia Transportation Co. to go into effect Thursday was suspended Monday for six months to June 18 by the Public Utility Commission.

At the same time the commission ordered an investigation to determine whether the boost is justified. It also ordered that the public hearing calendar be cleared to give the case preference and to expedite hearings on the proposal.

The firm had asked that the base cash fare be raised from 20 to 25 cents, that tokens be increased from 18 to 20 cents and that school fares be raised from 7½ to 10 cents.

The increases were ordered by the City of Philadelphia, its school district and the Fraternal Order of Police.

SEEK TO TRAP DOG WHO WAS ABANDONED

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — After successfully avoiding doped meatballs, photographers, the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and people in general, a wayward mongrel will now face Blackberry.

Blackberry is a Doberman pinscher who earns his keep as a stool pigeon for the SPCA.

The mongrel in question is wanted by the SPCA, which thinks it can find the dog a better home than is available on the big grassy circle that divides noisy Route 1.

Seven weeks ago the animal was abandoned at the traffic circle. The reddish-brown mutt attracted considerable attention for six weeks—fruitlessly waiting for its master to return.

Nobody could catch the dog and he didn't eat drugged meatballs which would have made him slow enough to be caught. He took to the woods.

An SPCA representative said that the Doberman will seek out the mongrel, which is now hiding in woods about five miles from the traffic circle.

Oust Families Who Picketed Church

BRISTOL, Pa. (AP) — Thirteen families who picketed a Bristol Township church have been told they no longer are members of the parish.

The families, among 25 who picketed St. Mary's Ukrainian Catholic Church last Sunday were contacted Monday by Father Leo Tymkiw, pastor of St. Mary's. He told them they were no longer parishioners of the church and must come in person to explain their actions before they will be taken back.

The families picketed two Sunday masses carrying signs. They protested their Pastor's intention of celebrating Christmas this year on Dec. 25, instead of their traditional Jan. 6.

Father Tymkiw said the families had created a public scandal which was offensive to the church and to the church's authority.

The Journey To Jesus

Magi's Arrival Upsets Jerusalem; They Are Summoned To Confer With Herod

EDITOR'S NOTE: The arrival of the Magi of Persia in tense, troubled Jerusalem set off a wave of uneasy hope among the populace and anger in the palace. Here's a reconstruction of events leading to the Wise Men's interview with Herod, third in five stories on their Journey to Jesus.

By GEORGE CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

THE QUESTION raced through the city. It swept along the shops of the marketplace. It filtered into the crowded quarter of the poor, the Acra, and whirled through the Temple courts. The question jarred Jerusalem: "Where is he that is born King of the Jews?"

Old men frowned and young men wagged their heads. Cloth-mongers paused in their prattle and women clapped hands to their mouths. Some men scoffed; some snarled; some dreamed. Some chewed their lips, wondering.

Three Strangers
In the middle hour of the morning, the three strangers, potentates from a distant land, had ridden into the city and halted at the "broad place" just inside the Fountain gate, asking their disturbing question:

"Where is he that is born King . . . ? For we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him."

To the three windburned travelers, the learned Magi of Persia, it must have been keenly dispiriting to find that here in the Holy City, the very cradle of redemptive prophecy, none knew of its culmination.

Jerusalem Astir

They proceeded on up the narrow streets, their footmen bearing the gift cases. A growing throng of onlookers trailed behind them and on either side. Lictors,

THIS WOODCUT of the appearance before Herod is taken from a story on the life of Jesus published in 1478 at Ulm, Germany. Note how the anonymous medieval artist, unfamiliar with the East, clothed the figures in the court dress of Europe.

with bronze-tipped staves, cleared the way.

The venerable, old Melchior swayed tiredly in the saddle, and voices babbled around them.

"What manner of excellencies are these? . . . They speak boldly of a new King . . . Will not Herod seize them? . . . Are they mad? . . . Surely they are Asian princes . . . They wear the emblems of wizards of the Far East."

All Jerusalem was troubled, Matthew's gospel reports, for the question revived an age-old cry echoing out of the mists of the past in this enchanted city.

Camped In Kidron

On the evening before, the incense in the Kidron Valley outside the walls. Their dark tents with fringed awnings drew swarms of beggars and wails, whom the Magians ordered fed and given coins.

Now, after a restive night, they had entered the city, convinced they had reached the end of their long pilgrimage — the birthplace of the God-King. For this was the capital of the people predestined to be his lineage.

Yet the only response had been guarded looks, surprise and perplexity. Roman sergeants appeared brusquely to ask the delegation its purpose, and other functionaries scrutinized them.

Beside a pool, Melchior raised his hand and the party halted. An attendant hurried up and the old High Magus eased himself to the ground, road sore and stiff. Balthasar and young Gaspar also dismounted.

Approach Temple

The three left their camels with servants and trudged silently up the paved ramp toward the Temple. It dominated the city, high on the eastern hill, its marble walls and towers gleaming in the sun.

Melchior squinted, his face drawn and dark. His own ancient religion, with its one great God of goodness, reared no earthly temples. Yet the bygone pontiff Persian kings had proclaimed Israel's God the same.

He plodded along slowly, blinking at the shimmering stones ahead.

Darius' Decree

Long ago, the powerful Darius had decreed that the "God of Daniel" is the "living God," synonymous with Ahura-Mazda. And Cyrus the Great said likewise, even providing means to restore the Jewish Temple in all its grandeur.

Why, then, was the Divine Epiphany unknown here? Melchior ran a wrinkled hand over his face. Had he misread the accumulated perception of the age? Had he mistranslated a star?

All the world of that day had felt vague presentiments of a coming matchless leader, a champion of a golden age. Even in idol-filled Rome, the historians, Tacitus and Suetonius, and the Poet Virgil spoke of it. It had pulsed immemorially in the blood of Israel, and did so even now beneath the boot of the Roman pawn, Herod. Yet there was no inkling of its fulfillment. A wave of depression ran over Melchior.

Lifetime Study

Surely it was here, as revealed in the sacred tomes, in the musty, inspired wisdom that surpasses wisdom, that the Anointed would rise. All Melchior's days, he had absorbed these tortuous secrets, both of Jew and Aryan like himself, harnessing his mind and spirit to receive it.

How painstakingly his royal priestly academy had pored over obscure formulas, examined the elements and analyzed the time intervals given by Daniel to comprehend the supernal moment.

And then the planetary heralds had come, followed by the mystic flame — the "star of Jacob" as foreseen in a trance by the gentle diviner, Balaam. Yet, here where it had beckoned, its meaning remained unrealized.

Had the search been in vain, a puerile illusion? Practical-minded men had called it so. Could they be right? Was the search for a Savior sheer folly?

Melchior sighed and suddenly he was deeply weary, drained of all energy. He hesitated unsteadily there on the sloping pavement, and again pressed a hand to his eyes. Balthasar gripped his shoulder. "Art thou faint, Rabbi-Magus?"

Doubt Overcome

Melchior set his jaw, waved

Balthasar away and pushed on up the hill.

He would not lose heart! Failure was impossible, in reality. God did not change. His covenant remained undiminished. Only man's understanding of it veered and wavered, for he judged truth in a moment's narrow scope, not the sweep of the eternity.

They could not be wrong. The steady beat of the centuries could not be wrong, nor the great, long tide of vision, nor the holy books. Daniel could not be wrong, not he whose genius defied logic, whose endowments excelled the earthly manifestations of fire and beast, who read the inscrutable on the walls of the courts of Balthasar. Not all the prophets could be wrong. Nor humanity's highest hope. Nor the star!

All at once, Melchior knew. In the infinite symmetries of God, while it was to Israel that the King was born, it was left to voyagers from afar to seek Him out, in token of the range of His call, the universal extent of His kingship.

Magi Receive Warning

On a portico outside the Temple wall, the Magi approached a rabbi who sat awaiting his students, and explained briefly the causes and object of their search.

A light, an old hunger, darted in the Jewish teacher's eyes, and then he frowned, glancing about uneasily.

"Thou dost stir up the wells of hope," he said in a low voice. "Withal, be heedful lest the Herodians take thy words amiss. The king is a jealous king."

Melchior smiled wanly, and his hand traced a circle, sign of blessing. The search went on. They inquired of chief priests, in the shops, among the lowly and high.

Brings Greeting

Soon, to their tents, came a bowing courtier, garbed in ornate robes and pendants, who "Honored sirs, I bring thee greetings from his majesty, Herod the King, who requests audience with thee that he may attend thee in thy desires."

Melchior nodded thoughtfully. A squad of Roman troops led them across the city to the west wall. As the gates swung open to the lavish castle with its sweeping esplanade, fountains and arbors, trumpet blasts sounded from a tower.

Compared to the troubled buzzing of the city without, a troubled quiet descended within the palace grounds.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A Baltimore & Ohio Railroad engineer was stricken fatally Tuesday in the railroad's Hazelwood yards.

The coroner's office said Joseph Dunkle, 55-year-old New Castle resident, was dead on arrival at Mercy Hospital. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

MRS. KRAVITZ FILES APPEAL FOR RE-TRIAL

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Ethel Kravitz, 45, convicted of second degree murder in the slaying of her husband, Max, Tuesday appealed to Montgomery County Court for a new trial.

A jury of eight women and four men Friday night convicted Mrs. Kravitz of the July 4 slaying of her wealthy husband in their suburban Wynnewood home. Kravitz was shot and bludgeoned to death. The jury recommended mercy for Mrs. Kravitz who denied the killing but did not testify in her own defense.

The appeal for a new trial was filed by Atty. William O'Hey, Jr. The lawyer presented two motions to judge William F. Dannehower who presided at the trial, and Judges Morris Gerber and David E. Goshens. The three jurors were sitting in argument court.

"Insufficient Evidence"

O'Hey filed motions for arrest of judgement and for a new trial. The document he presented to the court contended the commonwealth's evidence was insufficient to sustain the charge, the trial judge erred in not directing the

Four Properties Are Transferred

The following property transfers were filed in the office of the register and recorder today:

Donald C. and Alice C. Smith Conewago Twp., sold to Robert C. and Laura N. Matthews, one-half acre in Irishtown for $15,500.

Daniel P. and Margaret N. Polley, Fairfield, sold to William C. and Ethel V. Schultz, Fairfield a property in Fairfield for $500.

John L. and Mary Frances Boyer, Franklin Twp., sold to Gottfried and Marie Eigner, Biglerville R. 2, five acres in Franklin Twp. for $800.

John L. and Mary Frances Boyer, Franklin Twp., sold to Ferdinand and Anna Tauscher, Biglerville R. 2, nine acres in Franklin Twp. for $1,200.

jury to acquit on all counts, there was an error on the face of the record, the verdict was contrary to evidence and to the weight of evidence.

The court accepted the motions without comment.

Meanwhile, Charles G. Moody, Montgomery County chief of detectives, disclosed he was investigating crank mail received by a number of jurors and Dist. Atty. Bernard DiJoseph who prosecuted the case.

WOMEN BUILD BIG MART FOR ESKIMO ART

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — There may be some remote areas of this 49th state-to-be where the happy word on statehood has not yet penetrated, but they don't include the village of Gambell.

Gambell is on weather-beaten St. Lawrence Island in the Bering Sea an hour's flight from Nome and less than 50 miles from Russia.

Thanks to the enterprise of two women here, there is a lively informal interchange between Gambell and Anchorage.

Began By Accident

Mrs. Madelyn Allsman of Cleveland, Okla., and Mrs. Marie Armstrong of The Dallas, Ore., living here temporarily, are selling beaver slippers and moccasins, ivory carvings and other hand-crafted items fashioned by Eskimo residents of Gambell.

With the money they collect, they buy and send back to the village badly needed food, clothing, footwear, tools and other U. S.-made merchandise, along with the latest news from the other 48 states.

The two women got into the non-profit enterprise accidentally. They heard about the plight of an Eskimo dentist, Donald Harry Ugloovok, who had to give up his practice when his wife was stricken with tuberculosis and sent to the Alaska Native Service Hospital here. Don Harry stayed in Gambell to take care of their six children, but his meager savings were soon exhausted.

Talented Artist

In visits to the hospital, Mrs. Allsman and Mrs. Armstrong discovered that Don Harry's wife was a talented artist. They provided her with materials and began selling Mrs. Ugloovok's charcoal paintings to friends at $1 each. The money went to Don Harry's family.

Soon other Eskimo families in Gambell heard about it and began sending them homemade moccasins, slippers and ivory carvings. Today the two friendly ladies spend most of their free time receiving orders for Eskimo-made slippers and ivory ear rings and brooches and sending food, clothes, lipsticks and cosmetics to the village.

The regular jobs of the two women are at the Federal Electric Corp., a service organization of International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. which maintains and operates the White Alice communications system in Alaska and the DEW radar line that stretches across Alaska and Canada. They are thrilled with their extra-curricular job, especially when they receive letters from Don Harry like this:

"... oh boy finally I receive your boxes you send to us all boxes arrive good, and I am very surprised to see many different things in the boxes wonderful things... my friends here at Gambell, they really like in the day I have a many company to wait for the boxes to open..."

Fresh Egg Vender; Made $2,000 1st Year

MICKORY, N. C. (AP) — Now you can even get a dozen eggs from a vending machine.

Heath B. Marsh, who operates a chicken farm near here, sells his eggs from a machine that looks like a soft drink dispenser, complete with refrigerated unit.

The machine holds 100 dozens eggs in two sizes. It's in his front yard in a building which also houses his grading room and storage room for egg cartons and other equipment.

Marsh figures he made an extra $2,000 the first year he sold his eggs by machine, for his silent salesman operates 24 hours a day. And it takes much less of his time than his former egg route.

Bank Depositor Jails Thugs, 3 To 8 Years

BOSTON (AP) — Superior Court Judge Frank J. Murray looked down from the bench at the defendants, Robert G. Shroeder, 35, and Lawrence T. Weymouth, 32, were charged with robbing the Second Federal Savings and Loan Assn. of $2,797.

"Will you inform your clients," the judge told their lawyer, "that I am a depositor in the bank they robbed, and ask if they want another judge to handle their case?"

They didn't. Depositor Murray sent them to state prison for 3-8 years each.

FRIENDLY FOLKS

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP) — A tavern owner applying for a liquor license renewal was asked by the county Alcoholic Beverage Board if there were ever any unescorted females in his place. "Not for long," he replied.

BULL BOLTED

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man. (AP) — A young bull being washed before going on show at the annual fair here got some water in his ear which annoyed him. He broke his halter and tore across a nearby golf course, treeing three golfers before being recaptured.

ADMITS DUPE IN APPEAL FOR WIFE'S RETURN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Andy Jutson testified Tuesday he would not have signed a "Coya come home" letter to his wife, Rep. Coya Knutson (D-Minn.), if he had known the people who were back of it.

The letter caused a sensation during Mrs. Knutson's campaign for re-election, which ended in defeat. She has charged a malicious conspiracy was mainly responsible for her failure to be elected for a third term.

Knutson told a special House committee he believed he had been "taken" and had been a "dupe" in pleading with his wife in a May 4 press release letter to quit politics and come home to Oklee, Minn.

Spurned Plea

Mrs. Knutson spurned the plea, won the Democratic primary but was defeated in the Nov. 4 general election by Odin Langen, a Republican. The committee is investigating, at her request.

The representative sat quietly in a spectator's chair at today's hearing as her husband, with whom she had been having marital difficulties, testified. Their adopted son, Terry, 18, also was in the hearing room.

At Monday's session, Charles A. Appel, Washington handwriting expert, testified that the original press release had been written in long hand by Maurice O. Nelson, a Fosston, Minn., lawyer who was also chairman of a volunteer committee for Langen.

LAURELLI ASKS FOR NEW TRIAL

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — U. S. District Judge John W. Murphy had under advisement today a plea for a new trial for Frank P. Laurelli. He was the first person convicted on charges stemming from an investigation of construction contracts for the 33-million-dollar Tobyhanna Signal Corps Depot.

Laurelli's lawyer, G. Fred Debona, asked for the new trial Monday, on the ground that the evidence was not sufficient to support a guilty verdict.

Laurelli was convicted of perjury and attempted bribery in 1956. He was employed by the John B. Kemmel Co. of Philadelphia, which held a sub-contract for painting work at the depot. He was accused of attempting to bribe a supervisor at the depot.

Several others, including U. S. Rep. William Green, chairman of the Democratic party in Philadelphia, face trial on conspiracy charges in the awarding of contracts for the depot.

HONESDALE, Pa. (AP) — A man was killed and a father and son were injured Monday in a head-on collision on nearby Route 370.

The dead man was Clyde Rolinson, 42, of Binghamton, N. Y., a former resident of this area. He was alone in his car. Injured were Charles Burke, 51, of Honesdale, R. I., and Daniel, 12. Their conditions were described as not critical.

Mendler Services Held Tuesday

Funeral services for Otto C. Mendler, 75, 218 Howard St., who died suddenly last Saturday morning of a coronary attack, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bender Funeral Home with the Rev. C. Reynolds Simmons, pastor of the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren, officiating. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Curtis W. Bosserman, Charles G. Boyer, Lawrence Hartman, Edgar Leer, Levi Ogburn and Frank Miller.

QUESTION PLAN TO DELAY PAY CHECKS IN PA.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania State Employees Council have questioned the legality of a state plan to delay the paychecks of state employees.

Reuben H. Miller, president of the union, asked that the plan be postponed until its legality can be studied by the attorney general.

The union president expressed doubt that the state could make the change without an act of the Legislature. He said it took a legislative act to change the basis of paying state employees when the present two-week pay period was put into effect.

Effective Jan. 1, the state plans to revise its payroll system so that state employees are paid two weeks after they have completed the two-week work period. At present they are paid on the last day of the period.

Would Spread Delay The administration said checks have to be made up in advance of the day they are distributed. Under the present plan, the administration said, this poses accounting problems when employees do not earn the exact amount of the prepared check because of absences, overtime or other reasons.

To change to the "post audit" method, paydays for state employees would be delayed one day each pay period until the two-week delay is effected. The change would cover several months.

Miller said now is not the time to make the change "considering the financial difficulties which are being experienced by most of the state employees." He said many still are having payroll deductions for initial payments required in order to acquire state Social Security coverage in 1956.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police continued a house-to-house search in north Philadelphia today for a man who slashed a 7-year-old girl. The child might be disfigured for life.

The razor slash extends from the right ear to the mouth of Deborah Poisson. One hundred stitches were needed to close it.

The attractive little girl was slashed Saturday night outside her home. She was playing when a tall man approached her and asked street directions, then suddenly slashed the child and fled.

Add minced parsley or celery tops to tomato juice and refrigerate overnight; strain and serve as an appetizer.

FRANCE BACKED INTO CORNER IN TRADE BATTLE

By DAVID MASON

PARIS (AP) — France appeared today to be backed into a tight corner in her stubborn fight against the British plan to turn Western Europe into a free trade area.

France wants to keep British competition out of the Common Market, which goes into operation Jan. 1 with France, West Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg as members.

Britain threatened a trade war Monday if the Common Market is not expanded to include the 11 other West European nations of the Organization for European Economic Cooperation.

The possibility of a trade war apparently cost France the full support of her Common Market partners.

After nearly 14 hours of negotiations, French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville admitted in substance, "France is isolated."

Sir David Eccles, president of the British Board of Trade, beamed to reporters, "We are 100 per cent satisfied," he said. "We've got just what we wanted."

The Common Market institutes its first 10 per cent tariff cutback Jan. 1. The six will also increase import quotas among themselves by an over-all figure of 20 per cent and quotas on each individual item will be at least 3 per cent of the national production of the item during 1958.

To Extend Tariff Cutback Earlier this month, the six agreed to extend the tariff cutback to most of their OEEC partners and the 20 per cent over-all quota figure to the other 11 European nations. The 3 per cent stipulation was not contained in the Common Market offer.

Britain offered Monday to match the Common Market offer and threw in the 3 per cent rule for good measure.

The negotiators agreed to study possible compromises and meet again Jan. 15 to discuss a free trade area. Informants said that meanwhile, as a stopgap peace measure, at least some of the concessions offered by the Common Market members would take effect Jan. 1.

Market Explained The Common Market, formally known as the European Economic Community, is designed to achieve a higher standard of living for the 170 million persons in the six nations by removing all internal trade barriers while keeping a uniform barrier against other nations. The target for achievement of this is 12 to 15 years.

Led by Britain and the Scandinavian countries, other West European nations fear their trade with the six nations would be lost and West Europe would be split into two economically. They want a free trade area of all 17 OEEC nations to remove internal barriers while keeping separate national barriers against trade from outside West Europe.

The French fear that letting the British, and indirectly the rest of the British Commonwealth, into their markets would hurt their

Five Are Killed In Airplane Crash

NORTH SMITHFIELD, R. I. (AP) — Seven men, including five executives of a New Jersey concern, were killed Monday when their company-owned plane crashed in a swamp during a snowstorm.

The pilot, copilot and five executives of the Johnson & Johnson Co. of New Brunswick, N. J., were en route from Linden, N. J., to Boston.

The plane was last heard from at 9:30 a.m. when the pilot reported one of the two engines dead over Franklin, Mass., about 25 miles south of Boston.

COLD WEATHER IS FORECAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Weather Bureau forecasts temperatures below the seasonal normal over the eastern half of the United States for the next 30 days, except for near normal in the Florida Peninsula.

"Above normal temperatures are expected to prevail west of the Continental Divide. In the intervening area of the Central Plains about normal averages are in prospect but with large variations about the normal."

"Precipitation is expected to equal or exceed normal east of the Appalachians along the Gulf Coast and over the eastern Great Lakes. In Central and Northern portions much of this will be in the form of snow."

"Equal or above normal amounts are also expected over the Pacific Northwest and in the Central and Northern Plains. In the remainder of the country subnormal precipitation is anticipated."

NAZARETH, Pa. (AP) — Fire destroyed a three-family home in Upper Nazareth Township Monday and took the life of a 5-year-old boy who dashed back into the burning building.

Dead was Thomas Budzak. His mother, Catherine, 26, said the boy awakened her to tell her the curtains in the kitchen were afire.

She herded him and another child, Deborah, 2, to safety, but for some reason the boy ran back into the house. Flames prevented Mrs. Budzak from following the youngster.

own high-rise industries. Therefore, Paris prefers the smaller six-nation group.

TO HONOR LAWRENCE PITTSBURGH (AP) — At least three Pittsburgh groups are planning affairs honoring Mayor David L. Lawrence who becomes governor of Pennsylvania on Jan. 20.

Lawrence, Pittsburgh's chief executive since 1945, will be feted at a farewell dinner Jan. 6 by the Civic Club of Allegheny County and the Golden Triangle Assn.

The Pittsburgh Press Club will play host at a luncheon for Lawrence Jan. 12.

LOSES JOB FOR LIKING IKE

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Because he was a Republican and liked Ike, D. F. Pickert said, he was fired as a part-time caretaker by Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.).

"It was just the idea I was a Republican that was too strong for him," said the 66-year-old Pickert, who had worked part-time at Morse's farm near here 25 years. He was paid $1 an hour.

Morse said in Washington, D.C., that he did not dispute with Pickert's services because the caretaker is a Republican "but because he had not been loyal to my friendship."

Pickert said at his home here that last October, after Morse had criticized President Eisenhower in a speech, he remarked to Morse, "Eisenhower has forgot more about war than the common man will ever know."

"I never saw a man get so mad," Pickert said. The discharge, he said, followed.

Plan Memorial Bell Scholarship UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — A movement is afoot to establish a journalism scholarship at Penn State University in memory of the late Louis H. Bell.

Friends, colleagues, alumni and school officials plan a drive to raise funds for the scholarship, it was announced today.

H. Eugene Goodwin, director of Penn State's school of journalism, said a journalism scholarship was most fitting because of Bell's "deep and abiding interest in young people and his utter devotion to the profession of journalism."

Bell, a former newspaperman, was director of public relations at Penn State until his death in October.

Delay In Sounding Alarm, Mixup In Address Caused Heavy Toll In School Fire

CHICAGO (AP) — A delay in sounding a fire alarm and a mix-up in street addresses are cited by Chicago's fire commissioner as two of the direct causes of the deaths of 89 pupils and three nuns in the Our Lady of the Angels School fire.

Had fire fighters reached the school as little as three minutes earlier, Robert J. Quinn told a coroner's jury investigating the Dec. 1 fire, there might have been no lives lost.

Firemen were able to save 160 children, he added. Many of the victims were trapped in their second-floor rooms by heavy, black smoke.

Definite Discrepancies Quinn said that there were "definite discrepancies" as to when the alarm was sounded.

"There were three persons inside the school building who knew of the fire and did not give an alarm immediately," he declared.

He apparently referred to the testimony of Miss Pearl Tristano, 24, a fifth grade teacher, who said she and one of her pupils smelled smoke between 2:35 and 2:40 p.m. She notified a teacher in an adjoining room. The teacher hunted unsuccessfully for the mother superior.

Led Class Out Miss Tristano said she sounded the school alarm, but only after she had led her class out in fire drill formation. The school alarm does not ring in the Fire Department office.

When a telephoned alarm did come at 2:42 p.m., said Quinn, the address given was that of the rectory, half a block from the burning school. Firemen had to waste precious moments, he said, asking where the blaze actually was.

First Minutes Count Asked why the Fire Department did not sound an extra alarm as soon as it knew a school was afire, Quinn answered: "It's a good suggestion, but in a case like this, I had sent 500 companies on the first alarm, it wouldn't have done much good."

"In fire fighting you win or lose in the first few minutes."

Earlier, Robert J. O'Brien, chief of the city's Fire Prevention Bureau, said he believes the fire burned in the school 20 minutes before it was noticed.

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP) — Two men who escaped from the United States Disciplinary Barracks at New Cumberland, Pa., have pleaded guilty to a stolen car charge.

Lonnie G. Jacobs, 21, and Le Roy C. Reitenauer, 24, entered their pleas Monday in U. S. District Court. They were charged with stealing a car in New Cumberland and transporting it to Berkeley Springs.

BLOOM HITS NEW RULING BY TAX BUREAU

HARRISBURG (AP)—George I. Bloom, Republican state chairman, said today that a recent ruling of the Sales Tax Bureau was a "decision to slap a 3 per cent tax on water used in homes."

A. Allen Sulcove, acting revenue secretary, immediately denied the allegation.

Bloom said the ruling was "a confused move to add over $2,700,000 annually to bills of housewives and businessmen and collect nearly eight millions retroactively."

To Be Retroactive

The GOP chairman said the ruling was issued without notice to the general public Nov. 21, 1958 and the levy would be retroactive.

Sulcove said Bloom "misinterprets" the ruling.

The revenue chief said the ruling clarified the Commonwealth's right to tax sales of water when sold as part of large tanks, for air conditioning equipment, or when sold as distilled water. The sale of bottled water for use as a beverage is excluded from tax, he said.

Sulcove declared in a statement:

"The Legislature, by listing only gas and steam as taxable utilities, obviously exempted such utilities as water and electricity. We are following the mandate of the Legislature—no water company has ever been requested to to March 1956.

"It will come as a shock to homeowners and businessmen not only that they are to be saddled with a new tax burden but that the Democrat-controlled Sales Tax Bureau has decided to slap a tax on a necessity of life," Bloom said.

"It will come as a shock to homeowners and businessmen not only that they are to be saddled with a new tax burden but that the Democrat-controlled Sales Tax Bureau has decided to slap a tax on a necessity of life," Bloom said.

Sulcove said Bloom "misinterprets" the ruling.

The revenue chief said the ruling clarified the Commonwealth's right to tax sales of water when sold as part of large tanks, for air conditioning equipment, or when sold as distilled water. The sale of bottled water for use as a beverage is excluded from tax, he said.

Sulcove declared in a statement:

"The Legislature, by listing only gas and steam as taxable utilities, obviously exempted such utilities as water and electricity. We are following the mandate of the Legislature—no water company has ever been requested to

Deadline Here In Pearson Suit

WASHINGTON (AP)—If Arthur T. McGonigle has any objections to a motion brought by columnist Drew Pearson to dismiss a $300,000 libel suit, he must file them today.

McGonigle, unsuccessful Republican candidate for governor of Pennsylvania last month, sued Pearson Oct. 29. He accused the columnist of libeling him in an Oct. 1 column dealing with the activities of McGonigle and his brother, Ray, in the pretzel business at Reading, Pa.

Tuesday in U. S. District Court Pearson's attorney, John Donovan, asked that the suit be dismissed because "it fails to state a claim against the defendant upon which relief can be granted."

Donovan said in his motion that "a candidate invites discussion of his public conduct and qualifications for office," and "he is in no position to complain if that discussion or judgment is adverse."

McGonigle said he was not a candidate for office and that he was not a public figure.

MILK OUTPUT UP, EGGS DOWN FOR NOVEMBER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania milk production reached record-setting proportions during November while the Commonwealth's egg output decreased, the State Agriculture Department reported today.

The department's crop reporting service predicted 1958 milk production probably will surpass the record year of 1956 by 3 or 4 per cent.

Milk output of Pennsylvania farms during November was estimated at 487 million pounds. To with a suggestion. He set up a fund for the children then being taken care of by American missions in China. The plan was to take the royalties from "Silent Night" and pour them into the fund. In this way I'd avoid cashing in on religious songs.

"We helped clothe and support those kids until the government, looking for fresh tax money, ruled that our scheme was illegal. By that time we'd probably put a quarter of a million dollars into that worthwhile cause."
